

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of contributors	viii

Introduction: why discourses in action?	1
KLAUS KRIPPENDORFF

PART I

Divergent approaches to discourse analyses 15

RACHEL STONECIPHER

- 1 Analysing the politics of denial: critical discourse studies and the discourse-historical approach 19
RUTH WODAK
- 2 Discourse as ventriloquy: a pragmatic/relational analysis of media as agents 37
FRANÇOIS COOREN
- 3 Discursive construction: a sociology of knowledge approach to discourse analysis 51
REINER KELLER
- 4 Discursive psychology: a non-cognitivist approach to practices of knowing 71
JONATHAN POTTER

PART II

Three prototypical studies of discourses in action 87

NOUR HALABI

- 5 Re-contextualizing visual representations: the videos of and about police accountability in three competing discourses 89

MARY ANGELA BOCK

- 6 Discourses for transformation? climate change, power and pathways to the future 104

ANABELA CARVALHO

- 7 The circulation of constitutional discourse 120

GREG URBAN

PART III

Cultural contingencies of discursive practices 139

KATE ZAMBON

- 8 Dueling discourses of power and resistance: the cultural contexts of the shifting revolutionary rhetoric of three Egyptian political actors 143

SAHAR KHAMIS

- 9 One case, two verdicts: the vertical interplay of authoritative discourses in China 158

HAILONG TIAN

- 10 Discourses of dissent: the role of speech and action in Israeli grassroots activism 173

TAMAR KATRIEL

- Index* 187

