

Contents

2019 Presidential Address

- Sociology Engaged in Social Justice 1
Mary Romero

Articles

- Getting In, Getting Hired, Getting Sideways Looks:
Organizational Hierarchy and Perceptions of Racial Discrimination 31

Adia Harvey Wingfield and Koji Chavez

- Mano Suave–Mano Dura*: Legitimacy Policing and Latino Stop-and-Frisk 58

Victor M. Rios, Greg Prieto, and Jonathan M. Ibarra

- Exploiting Ambiguity: A Moral Polysemy Approach to Variation in Economic Practices 76

Guillermina Altomonte

- Vaccine Refusal and Pharmaceutical Acquiescence:
Parental Control and Ambivalence in Managing Children’s Health 106

Jennifer A. Reich

- Educational Expansion, Skills Diffusion, and the Economic Value of Credentials and Skills 128

Satoshi Araki

Comment and Reply

- Do Police Brutality Stories Reduce 911 Calls? Reassessing
an Important Criminological Finding 176

Michael Zoorob

- Evidence of the Effect of Police Violence on Citizen
Crime Reporting 184

Matthew Desmond, Andrew V. Papachristos, and David S. Kirk

Corrections

- Horowitz, Jonathan. 2018. “Relative Education and the Advantage of a College Degree.” American Sociological Review 83(4):771–801. 191

- Corrigendum 197