

Contents

List of contributors vii

INTRODUCTION

- 1 The interdependence of issues relating to the universality, proliferation and costs of human rights 2
Thomas Van Poecke, Marie Bourguignon, Jan Wouters and Koen Lemmens

PART I THE UNIVERSALITY OF HUMAN RIGHTS

- 2 The mythic universality of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights: revisiting the drafting history of the UDHR in search of a foundational theory 27
Nick Goetschalckx
- 3 The case for a comprehensive global human rights treaty under UN auspices 47
Konstantinos D. Magliveras
- 4 The universality of human rights: a European perspective 69
Paul Lemmens
- 5 Recognition of same-sex relationships under the ECHR: till death – or the lack of European consensus – do us part 85
Johan Lievens and Nele Verbrugghe

PART II THE PROLIFERATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

- 6 The proliferation of human rights: between devotion and calculation 114
Kasey McCall-Smith
- 7 Human rights adjudication: between hopes and failures 143
Dalia Palombo

8	Sustainable development in 'new generation' trade agreements of the European Union: towards integration or fragmentation of the human rights language? Michelle Meulebrouck	172
9	Denationalization under the EC(t)HR: a need for an autonomous human right to a nationality? Louise Reyntjens	197
PART III THE COSTS OF HUMAN RIGHTS
10	Economic, social and political costs of the (non-)realization of human rights: towards a new social contract Felipe Gómez Isa	220
11	Conflicts in human rights-based development Gustavo Arosemena and Bart Kleine Deters	241
12	Rights and development: the costs of human rights in Ethiopia Dina Townsend and Nicky Broeckhoven	270
13	The least financially accountable branch? The right to health and the judiciary's power of the purse: an Israeli perspective Hillel Sommer	300
CONCLUSION
14	The human rights project: perspectives on universality, proliferation and costs of human rights Dima Yared	323
	Index	337