

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

1/ INTRODUCTION	9
2/ THE TEXT PART	12
2. 1 Lenka Sýkorová: Drawing as a non-verbal communication tool	12
2. 2 Karel Míšek: Plakát – Poster – Affiche	30
2. 3 Yasha Rozov: Thoughts about the future of the poster – considering its role in an era of globalization and technological and societal change	37
2. 4 Laze Tripkov: Viva La Poster	43
2. 5 Dušan Junek: Poster? Poster!	53
2. 6 Eduardo Barrera Arambarri: We love posters	60
2. 7 Li Xu: The Poster as an Artwork	73
2. 8 Pekka Loiri: A poster is a poem, a hammer and an open wound	81
2. 9 Thierry Sarfis: A graphic designer, artist and crafts educator?	87
3/ VIRTUAL BIENNALE PRAGUE	92
3. 1 1st Virtual Biennale Prague 2007 E-mail & Sex	93
3. 2 2nd Virtual Biennale Prague 2008 Fast Food	103
3. 3 3rd Virtual Biennale Prague 2009 Global Crisis	112
3. 4 4th Virtual Biennale Prague 2010 Discrimination	122
3. 5 5th Virtual Biennale Prague 2011 China	132
3. 6 6th Virtual Biennale Prague 2012 Corruption	142
3. 7 7th Virtual Biennale Prague 2014 Information War	149
3. 8 8th Virtual Biennale Prague 2015 Friendship	158
3. 9 9th Virtual Biennale Prague 2016 Future	167
3. 10 10th Virtual Biennale Prague 2018 Fake News	177
3. 11 11th Virtual Biennale Prague 2020 Wake Up Call	190

Starting in 2020, the Virtual Biennale Prague will take place every two years, as the word biennale suggests. In the beginning with exceptions, it was held every year to point out the acceleration in society.