

Contents

Foreword by Justin Rockefeller	xxxix
Acknowledgments	xlv
About the Contributors	xlvii
Acronyms and Abbreviations	lxi
Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1 Impact Investing: Innovation or Rebranding? Haifa Ben Abid, MPhil	9
Introduction	10
Methodology	11
Impact Investing: Clarifying the Concept	13
The History of Impact Investing: The Birth of a New Term	13
Challenging a Bifurcated System: Positive Impacts and Returns	14
Types of Impact Investing: Financial-First versus Impact-First	15
Impact Investing and Similar Practices: Where Do the Differences Lie?	16
Impact Investing: A Response to a Changing Investment Environment	18
Twenty-First Century Investing: Features of the New Investment Environment	18
Changing Demographics: Investment Practices Among Millennials	18
A Nascent Industry: Upward Trends and Institutionalization	20
A Global, Multibillion-Dollar Market	20
Mechanisms for Institutionalization	21
Key Features of Impact Investing	22
A Sense of Community: The Impact Investing Culture	22
Compatibility with Existing Models and Practices: Portfolios, Industry Standards, and Investment Priorities	23
Flexible Investing for Broad Investor Interests and Needs	23
	xi

Refining the "Good" Return: Financial and Social Considerations	24
Helping Investors "Walk the Walk": Aligning Mission, Values, and Investments	24
A Prudent Entrepreneurial Spirit: Experimentation and Mitigating Risks	25
Impact Investing: Leverage for Development?	25
Conclusion	28
References	29
CHAPTER 2 Investing for Impact: Socially Motivated Investors and Externalities	37
Raghavan Narayanan, MBA and Stoyan V. Tenev PhD
Introduction	38
A Conceptual Framework for Socially Motivated Investment Behavior	39
Typology of Socially Motivated Investors	43
Value Alignment	44
Value Commitment	47
Impact Investing	52
Conclusion	56
References	58
CHAPTER 3 Place-Based Impact Investing: Local and Regional Assets for Local and Regional Impact in Globally Diversified Portfolios	61
Lauryn Agnew, MBA
Introduction	62
Current State of Place-Based Impact Investing Collaboratives	64
Targeting Impact Through Place-Based Impact Investing	66
Aligning Place-Based Impact Investing with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals	69
Constructing Institutional Place-Based Impact Investing Portfolios	71
The Institutional Investor Portfolio	71
Aligning Investments with Place: Identifying the Geographic Area for Intentional Impact	72
A San Francisco Bay Area Example: The Bay Area Model Equity Strategy	73
The Bay Area Model Equity Strategy	74

The US Community Investing Index, by the F. B. Heron Foundation	77
Building Place-Based Impact Investing Portfolios	78
Creating Investable Opportunities for Sustainable and Resilient Communities Through Inclusive Community Engagement	81
Designing a Resilient Community in North Richmond, California	82
Developing Investable Opportunities in a Community	84
Connecting Investment Portfolios to the Investable Projects:
A Center for Place-Based Impact Investing	87
Capital Stacks: Financing Local and Regional Projects	88
Global Examples of Place-Based Impact Investing Success	93
Example 1: The State of Telangana, India	93
Example 2: The City of Curitiba, Brazil	97
Final Remarks and Key Conclusions	98
References	99
CHAPTER 4    How to Invest in Human Capital: Measuring and Integrating Human Capital Valuation to Realize Higher-Impact Portfolios	103
R. Paul Herman, BSci and Kirstin Dougall,                   MFA
Why Impact Investors Should Care About Human Capital Valuation	104
Methodology	105
Measuring the Contribution of Human Capital to Returns	106
Human Capital Valuation Methods	107
Investor Methods for Capturing Monetary HCV	109
The Heritage of Monetary Human Capital Valuation Methods	109
Investment Strategies Using Monetary HCV	110
Non-Monetary Human Capital Valuation for Impact Investors	111
Exemplary Ratings Systems That Feature Human Capital Valuation	111
Non-Monetary Human Capital Metrics That Impact Investors Can Use in Custom Analyses	112
Employee Participation	114
Incorporating Data from Human Resources Management Systems	115
Standards for Human Capital Valuation	115
Integrating Human Capital into the Investment Process	118
Examples of Human Capital Valuation Applied in Impact Investing	118
Examples: Monetary Human Capital Valuation in Action	119
Monetary HCV Example: Asian Company "BroadTek" Uses Human Capital Financial Statements to Calculate Returns on Workforce Investments	119

Monetary HCV Example: Global Technology Company Infosys Uses Present Value of Compensation Method to Calculate Returns on Workforce Investments	119
Examples: Using Non-Monetary Human Capital Metrics to Guide Investment	122
Example: Being a Global "Great Place to Work®" Creates Higher Growth	122
Non-Monetary HCV Example: Indian Company HCL Technologies' "Employees First, Customers Second" Initiative Leads to Higher Growth and Economic Resilience	123
Examples: Using Standards to Assess Whether Companies Value Human Capital	123
HCV Standards Example: SASB Standard Used by PIMCO to Invest in Commercial Banks	123
HCV Standards Example: How Novartis Used the "Social and Human Capital Protocol" to Calculate the Economic Value of Improving Health Across Africa	125
HCV Standards Example: French Automaker Groupe PSA Demonstrates How Human Capital Contributes to Their Value Chain Using the International Integrated Reporting Framework	125
HCV Standards Example: Managers of Australian Retirement Fund Assess and Adjust Holdings Using GRI Human Capital Guidelines	126
Stock Indexes and Funds Built on Human Capital Metrics	128
Looking Forward: New Human Capital Valuation Reporting Will Make Impact Investing Easier	130
An Investor's Action Plan for Human Capital Valuation	131
Conclusion	133
Further Reading for Impact Investors	134
Disclosure and Standards	134
Human Capital Valuation Ratings	134
Health and Safety	135
References	135
Appendix 4.1: Experts Interviewed	141
Appendix 4.2: Human Capital Management Institute Monetary Human Capital Valuation Formulas	142
Appendix 4.3: Human Capital Valuation Ratings Systems	143
Appendix 4.4: Human Resource Metrics and Where to Find Them	146

CHAPTER 5	Leadership by Results for Impact Investors and Investees	147
	Rajen Makhijani, MBA
Introduction		148
The Impact Sector Underinvests in Leaders		151
Leadership Is a Critical Lever to Deliver Results		151
Impact Sector Chronically Underinvests in Leadership     Development		152
Sector Leaders Themselves Acknowledge Gaps		153
The Wrong Metrics Lead to Underinvestment		154
The "Leadership by Results" Approach		154
Impact Investors Must Focus on Big Hairy Audacious Goals		156
Triggers for Leadership Development Across the Investment Life     Cycle		156
Custom and Collective Journeys for the Top Team		159
Mindsets, Not Just Skills		160
Holistic Support		163
Mindsets Can Tangibly Be Shifted Using Ontological and     Phenomenological Models		166
Use a Hurdle Rate for Impact and Financial Returns		167
Other Practical Suggestions to Implement the "Leadership     by Results" Approach		167
Three Practical Frameworks and an Example		168
Framework 1: Common Leadership Archetypes in the Impact     Sector		169
Mindsets and Attitudes		169
Fixed Mindset Archetypes in the Impact Sector		170
Extreme Deliberative or Extreme Implemental Mindset		175
Other Impact Sector Leader Archetypes		177
Framework 2: Leadership Team Effectiveness Framework		179
Framework 3: Translation of Leaders' Goals into Return     on Investment and Attribution		181
Translation of Goal Achievements into Returns on         Investment		181
Attribution of Impact		185
Institutionalized Leadership Development Support: The Case     of Leapfrog Investments Talent Accelerator		186
Conclusion		190
References		192

CHAPTER 6	Gender Lens Investing: Co-Creating Critical Knowledge to Build a Credible, Durable Field	195
	Edward T. Jackson, OMC, EdD and Elsa de Morais Sarmiento, MA
Introduction		196
	Why Critical Knowledge Matters to Professional Fields	197
Gender Lens Investing: Evolving Definitions		198
A Professional Field with Visibility, Force, and Momentum		201
Building a Larger, More Robust Field: Five Scaling Strategies		202
Deepening the Empirical Knowledge Base: Four Themes		207
Constructing a GLI Research Agenda Through 2030		216
Impact Investing Community-University Research Partnerships		220
Final Remarks		223
References		225
CHAPTER 7	Investing with a Gender Lens: Uncovering Alpha Previously Overlooked	233
	Kristin Hull, PhD
Introduction		234
Gender Lens Investing: Definitions, History, and Potential for a Growing Movement		236
	Definitions: What Is Gender Lens Investing?	236
	Origins and History of Gender Lens Investing	236
	Gender Lens Investing: A Growing Movement	240
Factors Driving Investors to Adopt a Gender Lens		243
	GLI Intended Goals	243
	Benefits of Incorporating a Gender Lens in Investing: The Evidence	244
	Female Asset Managers Outperforming	244
	Women at the Top	246
	Board Representation	247
	Women Founders and Women-Led Startups	248
How Impact Investors Can Pursue Gender Investing		250
	The United Nations Women's Empowerment Principles	250
	Key Ways to Leverage and Align Investment Portfolios with a Gender Lens	250
	Gender Lens Investing Examples Across Asset Classes	254
	Gender Lens Cash Equivalents and Short-Term Notes	254
	Gender Lens Public Fixed Income	254
	Gender Lens Fixed Income	255
	Gender Lens Private Debt	255
	Gender Lens Public Equities	256

Gender Lens Global Equities	257
Gender Lens Private Equity	258
Startup Ventures with a Gender Lens	258
Private Equity and Venture Capital Funds	258
Fund of Funds	260
The Importance of an Investment Policy Statement for Gender Lens Investing	260
GLI Example 1: Tara Health Foundation	262
GLI Example 2: Nia Global Solutions	262
Conclusion	263
References	265
Appendix 7.1: Resources	271
CHAPTER 8 Gender Lens Investing in the African Context	273
Michael Z. Ngoasong, PhD and Richmond O.     Lamptey, PhD
Introduction	274
Methodology	276
Why Gender Lens Investing in Africa Matters	279
Adopting Gender Lens Investing	281
The Practice of Gender Lens Investing in Africa	283
GLI Narratives of Regional Fund Managers in Africa	283
I-Microfinance Ltd, Ghana	289
C-Credit Ltd Cameroon	292
Discussion	295
Conclusion	296
Recommendations	297
References	299
CHAPTER 9 The Evolution from Gender-Focused Microfinance to Gender Lens Investing in Latin America: The Case of Pro Mujer	303
Angélica Rotondaro, PhD, Maria Cavalcanti,     MBA, MS and Carmen Correa, BS
Introduction: Building the Business Case for Gender Lens Investing in Latin America	304
Gender Lens Investing in Latin America and Beyond: Backstage Highlights	306
Pro Mujer's Gender Lens Investing Process	310
Pro Mujer's Background	310
The Transitioning Process	311
Pro Mujer's Gender Lens Investing and Scorecard	314

Ilu Women's Empowerment Fund GLI Scorecard	316
Unite to Conquer: The Crucial Role of Partnerships for Leveraging Catalytic Capital for Gender Lens Investing in Latin America	319
Key Learnings and Recommendations	323
The Way Ahead	329
References	330
CHAPTER 10 Inclusive Investing: Impact Meets Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion	333
Julianne Zimmerman, MSci, Edward Dugger III, MPA-UP, and Shijiro Ochirbat, MBA, MPA
Introduction: "DEI" Is Not an Asset Class	334
Aligning Purpose with Evidence and Practice	336
Inclusive Investing Methodology: Adapting the Scope 1, 2, 3 Approach to Assess Who Are the People in Your Portfolio?	343
Inclusive Investing in Practice: UNC Ventures	350
How to Begin: Determine What Is Material and Relevant	354
Inclusive Investing Methodology: Applying Inclusion Scope 1, 2, 3	356
Conclusion	359
References	360
Appendix 10.1: Starting Examples of Communities of Practice and Knowledge-Sharing Platforms	366
Appendix 10.2: Additional Resources for Further Exploration	368
CHAPTER 11 Investing for Impact in Employee Retirement Plans	371
Megan E. Morrice, MBA
Introduction	372
Retirement Plans Demand and Types	374
Demand for Sustainable Portfolios in Retirement Plans	374
Retirement Income Architecture: Defined Benefit and Defined Contribution	375
Regulation in the United States, United Kingdom, and European Union	380
Fiduciary Duty	380
Department of Labor Guidance in the United States	381
Guidance in the United Kingdom and the European Union	383
United States, Emerging Innovations in Sustainable Retirement Plans	388
Creating Successful Retirement Savings Plans	392
Feature: Auto-Enrollment into an Impact Default	393
Feature: Sustainable Target Date Funds	396
Feature: Technology as an Enabler	397

Benefits of Successful Sustainable Retirement Savings Plan	398
Benefit: Higher Contribution and Participation Rates	398
Benefit: Attracting Talent and Increased Employee Engagement	399
How a Retirement Plan Can Become More Sustainable	399
Guidelines for Companies to Offer Impactful Retirement Plans	400
Get Educated on Sustainable Investing	400
Engage Employees Through Their Retirement Plans	400
Prepare for Inspired Incremental Change	401
Educate Participants with Managerial Support	402
Guidelines for Individuals to Make Their Retirement Saving More Impactful	402
Research and Prepare	402
Talk to Colleagues and Build Consensus	403
Identify Who to Approach	403
Approach with Potential Solutions	403
Conclusion	404
References	405
Appendix 11.1: Experts Interviewed	411
CHAPTER 12 Fossil-Fuel-Free Investing: Weaving a New Investment Paradigm	413
Umachander Balakumar, MSci
Introduction	414
China: Lessons from the Biggest Polluter and Biggest Green Energy Market Maker	417
Metrics	419
Science-Based Targets: Scope 1, 2, and 3 Emissions	422
Other Key Metrics: Pursuing Fossil Fuel Free in Tandem with ESG	426
Building a Fossil-Fuel-Free Portfolio	428
Fossil-Fuel-Free Portfolios: Risk and Returns	431
Energy Productivity	436
Metrics as Building Blocks	437
Potential Investments	441
Private Equity (PE)	441
Hedge Funds	444
Commodities	446
Real Estate	448
Public Debt	449
Green Bonds	449
Cryptocurrency	451
Final Remarks	452
References	455
Appendix 12.1: Experts Interviewed	459
Appendix 12.2: Fossil-Fuel-Free Topics and Information	459

CHAPTER 13	The Role of Transition Finance Instruments in Bridging the Climate Finance Gap	461
	Pauline Deschryver, MSci, MPA and Frederic de Mariz, PhD
Introduction		462
An Overview of Green Finance		465
Objectives and Limits of Green Finance		465
Green Bonds, Increasingly the Primary Instrument of Green Finance		467
Green Bond Certification: Growing Diversity Toward Transparency and Integrity		469
Despite Strong Growth, Green Bonds Face Several Barriers		470
Green Bond Issuances Are Not Large Enough for Most Investors		470
Lack of Standardization in the Green Bond Market Threatens Integrity of Label		471
Reputational Risks Scare off Issuers and Investors Alike		472
The Sustainable Finance Market Stands to Benefit from the Development of Transition Finance		473
Transition Bonds: Characteristics and Specificities		473
Existing Frameworks for Transition Bonds		475
Issuance of Transition Bonds		482
The Development of Alternative Instruments: Cannibalization or Consolidation of the Green Bond Market?		484
Alternative Instruments to Bridge the Transition Finance Gap		486
Which Roles Can Market Participants Play to Foster Green and Transition-Oriented Finance?		489
Conclusion		490
References		491
CHAPTER 14	Social Impact Bonds: Promises and Results	499
	Maria Basílio, PhD
Introduction		500
Social Impact Bonds: Key Concepts		501
Expected Benefits and Reasons for Concern		505
The Theory Behind		506
Successes and Failures of SIBs		509
The Role of Impact Bonds in Sustainable Development Goals		511
Development Impact Bonds		512
Environmental Impact Bonds		514
Conclusion		518
References		520

CHAPTER 15	Climate and Money: Dealing with "Impact Washing" and a Case for Climate Impact Bonds	525
	Jyotsna Puri, PhD, Aemal Khan, MA, and Solomon Asfaw, PhD
	Introduction	526
	Impact Investing: Definition and Measurement Challenges	529
	Persistent Challenges to Impact Measurement and "Impact Washing"	530
	Social Impact Bonds	533
	The Case for Climate Impact Bonds: A Hypothetical Example	534
	Climate Impact Bonds: A Brief Introduction	535
	Background of the Hypothetical CIB	535
	Measuring Attributable Change Using Theory-Based Impact Evaluation	541
	Conclusions and Implications	547
	References	550
	Appendix 15.1: Definitions of Terms Used in the Impact Investing Industry	553
CHAPTER 16	Measuring and Evaluating Social Impact in Impact Investing: An Overview of the Main Available Standards and Methods	555
	Ana Pimenta, MEcon and Elsa de Morais Sarmiento, MA
	Introduction	556
	The Importance of Measurement in Impact Investing	559
	Impact Measurement Matters	559
	Scope of Impact Measurement	560
	Dimensions of Impact Measurement	561
	Stages of Impact Measurement	562
	Typologies of Impact Investors from an Impact Measurement Perspective	565
	A Brief Overview of the Evolution and Current Status of Impact Measurement in Impact Investing	569
	Social Impact Assessment	571
	Impact Investing	573
	Frameworks for Measuring and Reporting on Impact	575
	Social Impact Measurement Frameworks	576
	Assessing the Most Appropriate Framework: Three Applications	582
	Theory of Change and the Logic Model	587
	Logic Model	591
	MCC Malawi Compact Example	594

Standards	595
ESG Metrics	599
Principles for Responsible Investment	601
Global Impact Investment Rating System	602
Global Reporting Initiative	604
Impact Reporting and Investment Standards	606
Sustainability Accounting Standards Board	607
Sustainable Development Goals	608
A Selection of Methods for Impact Measurement	613
Expected Return Methods	616
Best Alternative Charitable Option	620
Cost-Benefit Analysis	622
Cost-Effectiveness Analysis	623
Economic Rate of Return	625
Social Return on Investment	630
An Integrated Approach for Impact Measurement	634
Lessons Learned for Impact Investors	640
Conclusion	642
References	644
Appendix 16.1: Definitions and Terminology	655
Appendix 16.2: Global, National, and Company Level Initiatives, Frameworks, and Toolkits	661
CHAPTER 17 Impact Measurement and Management Techniques to Achieve Powerful Results	667
Jane Reisman, PhD and Veronica Olazabal, MCRS
Introduction	668
Impact Measurement and Management: The Lever for Driving     Impact in Impact Investing	668
Methodology	670
An Evolving Landscape for Impact Measurement and Management	671
Impact Management Project's Five Dimensions of Impact and Its Use	675
The IRIS+ System	683
Sustainable Development Goal Alignment	686
Conclusion	691
References	694

CHAPTER 18	Transformative Evaluation and Impact Investing: A Fruitful Marriage	697
	Courtney Bolinson, MS and Donna M. Mertens, PhD
Introduction		698
Methodology		702
The Transformative Methodological Framework		703
The Transformative Framework Explained		703
Transformative Evaluation Design		704
Application to Impact Investing		714
Impact Thesis Application		715
Pre-Investment Application		717
Investment Application		718
Post-Investment and Exit Application		719
Examples		721
Village Capital and Peer-Selected Investment		721
Global Agri-Development Company and the Absence of a Transformative Framework		725
Engineers Without Borders, M-Shule, and a Transformative Evaluation Pilot		726
Conclusion		729
References		732
CHAPTER 19	Geospatial Analysis of Targeting of World Bank's Development Assistance in Mexico	735
	Mario Negre, PhD, Dr. Hannes Öhler, PhD, and Željko Bogetić, PhD
Introduction		736
Background and Context		739
Data and Methodology		741
Empirical Results		744
Regression Results		751
Conclusion		754
References		757
CHAPTER 20	Evaluating the Impact of Portfolio Allocations to Large Firms Along the Value Chain to Develop Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises	761
	Maximilian Foedinger, MBA, MPA and Elsa de Morais Sarmiento, MA
Introduction		762
Value Chains and Small and Medium Enterprises		765
Emerging Economies, Value Chains, and Small and Medium Enterprises		767

Impact Measurement in Value Chains	769
Donor Engagements with the Private Sector	771
Critical Success Factors for Donor Engagements in Value Chains	772
Critical Success Factors for SMEs' Participation in Value Chain	781
Best Practices for Impact Investors	782
Approach and Principles Underlying the Development of the EBRD Methodology	786
Development of the Methodology	787
Purpose and Scope	787
Approach and Impact Pathways	788
Indicator System	791
A Scoring System to Collect Additional Data	792
Oscillators	793
Proposed Indicators	794
Assessment of Results	797
Quantification of Impacts	797
The Traffic Light System Explained	798
Traffic Light System Application within the Methodology	799
Validation of Findings with Key Stakeholders and Aggregation     of Impacts for SMEs and National Level	800
Final Remarks	801
References	804
Appendix 20.1: Details on Indicators Used	808
Appendix 20.2: Impact Assessment Draft Questionnaire for Large Firms	817
Appendix 20.3: Impact Assessment Draft Questionnaire for SMEs	822
CHAPTER 21 Two Decades of Front-Line Impact Investing	827
Jean-Philippe de Schrevel, MBA
Introduction	828
Five Pillars of Impact Investing Best Practice	830
Invest in True Leaders	830
A Theory of Change	831
Use Appropriate Sources of Capital	834
The Value of Partnerships	837
Technology as the Critical Success Factor	838
Conclusion	840
References	840
CHAPTER 22 China's Rapidly Evolving Practice of Impact Investing: A Critical Perspective	843
Zhao Jianbo, PhD
Introduction	844
Literature Review: Defining the Spectrum of Impact Investing	846

Impact Investing	846
Venture Philanthropy	848
Base of the Pyramid	849
The Practice of Impact Investing in China: An Overview	850
A New Investment Community	850
Motivations for the Practice of Impact Investing in China	854
Targeted Poverty Alleviation Needs Social Capital	855
The Maturing Market for Impact Investing in China	857
Challenges to Impact Investment in China	859
Discussion	860
Recommendations	862
Conclusion	863
References	864
Appendix 22.1: List of Interviewees	867
CHAPTER 23 Impact Investing Through Corporate Social Responsibility: The Indian Experience	869
Tanvi Kiran, PhD and Shivam Dhawan, MA
Introduction	870
Data and Methods	872
Overview of the Corporate Social Responsibility Model in India	872
Focal Areas of Impact Investment Under CSR	872
Impact Investment Area 1: Education and Skill Development	874
Impact Investment Area 2: Environment and Related Areas	875
Impact Investment Area 3: Social Empowerment	875
Impact Investment Area 4: Health, Nutrition, Water, and Sanitation	876
Impact Investment Area 5: Specialized Mission Projects	877
Impact Investment Area 6: Miscellaneous Areas	877
Findings	878
Parameter 1: Magnitude of Impact Investment: Total CSR Spent on Developmental Activities	878
Parameter 2: Nature of Impact Investment: Sectoral Breakup of CSR Expenditure in India	878
CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 1: Education and Skill Development	879
CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 2: Environment and Related Areas	879
CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 3: Social Empowerment	880
CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 4: Health, Nutrition, Water, and Sanitation	883
CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 5: Specialized Mission Projects	884

CSR Spent in Impact Investment Area 6: Miscellaneous Areas	888
Parameter 3: Extent of Impact Investment in Terms of Geographical Distribution of CSR Expenditure in India	889
Parameter 4: Type of Impact Investment in Terms of CSR Spending by Public Sector and Non-Public Sector Undertakings	890
Discussion	892
Key Recommendations	896
References	897
CHAPTER 24 What Drives Impact Investors? Benchmarking Developed and Developing Countries Robin Kipfer, MSci	901
Introduction	902
Methodology	904
Research Design	904
Data Collection and Analysis	904
Literature Review	906
Financial Instruments Commonly Used for Impact Investments	906
Drivers for Impact Investments	909
Extrinsic Drivers for Impact Investments	909
Intrinsic Drivers for Impact Investments	911
Findings	913
Country Context and Impact Investing Activities	913
India	913
Finland	914
Extrinsic Drivers for Impact Investments	916
Public Policy	916
The Importance of Capital Providers	917
Intrinsic Drivers for Impact Investments	919
Discussion	921
Conclusion	923
References	924
Appendix 24.1: Experts Interviewed	927
CHAPTER 25 Understanding the Demand for Impact Investments: Insights from the Italian Market Alessandro Rizzello, PhD, Elisabetta Scognamiglio, PhD, Ludovica Testa, LM, and Lorenzo Liotta, LL.M	929
Introduction	930
Methodology	933

Startup Venture Financing and Impact Investing: An Overview	934
Intentionality	935
Measurability	936
Propensity to Improve Impact Investment Readiness	937
Findings	937
Startup Ventures Demography Characteristics	937
Social Impact	939
Evaluation of Social Impact	941
Propensity to Improve Impact Investment Readiness	943
Impact Investment Readiness Scoring	946
Conclusion	948
References	951
Appendix 25.1: Questionnaires	954
Section A. Business Demography Characteristics	954
Section B. Social Impact	957
Section C. Approach to the Evaluation of Impact	958
Section D. Propensity to Improve Impact Investment Readiness	959
Appendix 25.2: Scoring Results	961
Appendix 25.3: Detailed Scoring Frameworks	963
CHAPTER 26 The Importance of Scale in Social Enterprises:
The Indian Case	965
Vikram Raman, CA, MBA
Introduction	966
Social Enterprises and Requirements for Achieving Scale	968
Social Enterprises: Characteristics and Social and Economic Contributions	969
Factors That Influence a Social Enterprises Ability to Scale	970
Internal Factors That Influence Scaling	971
Business Model Clarity	971
Replicability	974
Innovation and Differentiation	975
Strong Management Team with Compelling Execution Capability	976
Dedicated Founders Without Dilution of Focus	976
Adaptability of the Business to Changing Market Conditions	977
Cash Flows and Unit Economics	977
External Factors That Influence Scaling	978
Appropriate Funding Options	978
Need for Incubation Support	979
Peer-to-Peer Interaction	980
Encouraging Government Policies and Initiatives	980
Target Market Constraints	981

Marketing and Distribution	982
Infrastructure	982
Advisory Support	983
Intermediaries	983
Level of Competition and Positioning	984
Technology	984
Perception Issues	985
Role of Development Financial Institutions	986
Growing Strategic Interest	987
Partnering with the Ideal Investor for Financing	988
Debt	989
Equity	990
Mezzanine	990
Innovative Structures	995
Scaling Responsibly	996
Case Studies	1002
Scaling Metrics	1011
Checklist for Social Enterprises Looking for Scale	1015
Conclusion	1022
References	1024
Appendix 26.1: Experts Interviewed	1030
CHAPTER 27 The Role of the Entrepreneurial University and Engaged Scholarship in Impact Investing Capacity Building	1031
Richard T Harrison, PhD and Suwen Chen MBA, MSci
Introduction	1032
The Entrepreneurial University	1034
The Role of an Entrepreneurial University	1037
Local and Regional Economic Growth	1037
Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development	1037
Three Missions of an Entrepreneurial University in Impact Investing	1040
Duke University (US)	1046
The University of St Gallen and Insper Business School (Switzerland and Brazil)	1047
University of Edinburgh (United Kingdom)	1048
University of Cape Town (South Africa)	1049
National University of Singapore (Singapore)	1050
From Top-Down to Bottom-Up	1050
Recognition of the Boundary of a University's Intervention	1052
Conclusion	1052
References	1053

CHAPTER 28	A Road Map for Implementing Impact Investing: The Case of Multinational Companies	1061
	Filipa Pires de Almeida, MSc and Marta Bicho, PhD
Introduction		1062
Methodology		1063
Impact Investing		1065
Company Profiles		1067
General Electric		1069
IKEA		1071
Unilever		1072
Findings on Impact Investing Strategies		1074
Findings: Underlying Conditions		1081
Findings: Resources		1082
Findings: Impact Investing Strategies		1082
A Road Map for Impact Investing		1083
Best Practices		1085
Conclusion		1087
Limitations		1088
References		1088
Appendix 28.1: Impact Investment Profiles		1093
Underlying Conditions		1094
Underlying Resources		1099
Impact Investing		1102
Appendix 28.2: Impact Investing Instruments		1107
CHAPTER 29	Impact Investing and European Wealth Managers: Why Impact Investing Will Go Mainstream and Evolve to Suit European Investors	1123
	Trang Fernandez-Leenknecht, CAIA, LLM
Introduction		1124
MiFID II: A Growth-Driver for Impact Investing		1128
The Action Plan of the European Union		1128
Suitability and Appropriateness Tests		1129
Assessing "Complex" Suitable Products		1130
Integrating Impact Investing into Investment Funds		1132
Developing Impact Investing to Suit the Retail Market		1135
Generalizing Impact Investing to a Mainstream Scale		1137
The Impact Report: A Protection Tool for the Investor		1139
Overview in Selected Countries		1140

France: Innovative "90/10 Solidarity" Products	1142
Switzerland: From Institutional to Individual Pension Investors	1144
Considerations for the Future	1147
Conclusion and Next Steps	1151
References	1153
CHAPTER 30 Fintech for Impact: How Can Financial Innovation Advance Inclusion?	1159
Frederic de Mariz, PhD
Introduction	1160
The Promise of Fintech: Innovation with a Purpose	1161
What Are the Benefits and Limits of Financial Inclusion?	1167
Within Fintech, Electronic Payments Are an Entry Point for Financial Inclusion	1172
The Drivers of Financial Inclusion: The Quality Dimension	1178
Can Fintech Enable More Impact Investing and Support SDGs?	1183
Conclusion	1185
References	1186

Index	1193
-------	------