

Contents

Introduction	6	06 Political life	69
01 Country and people	8	The public attitude to politics • The style of democracy • The constitution • The style of politics • The party system • The modern situation
Geographically speaking • Politically speaking • The four nations • The dominance of England • National loyalties		07 The monarchy	80
02 History	15	The appearance • The reality • The role of the monarch • The value of the monarchy • The future of the monarchy
Prehistory • The Roman period (43–410) • The Germanic invasions (410–1066) • The medieval period (1066–1458) • The sixteenth century • The seventeenth century • The eighteenth century • The nineteenth century • The twentieth century		08 The government	85
03 Geography	32	The cabinet • The Prime Minister • The civil service • Local government
Climate • Land and settlement • The environment and pollution • London • Southern England • The Midlands of England • Northern England • Scotland • Wales • Northern Ireland		09 Parliament	92
04 Identity	43	The atmosphere of Parliament • An MP's life • Parliamentary business • The party system in Parliament • The House of Lords
Ethnic identity: the four nations • Other ethnic identities • The family • Geographical identity • Class • Men and women • Social and everyday contacts • Religion and politics • Identity in Northern Ireland • Being British • Personal identity: a sense of humour		10 Elections	99
05 Attitudes	58	The system • Formal arrangements • The campaign • Polling day and election night • Recent results and the future • Modern issues
Stereotypes and change • English versus British • A multicultural society • Conservatism • Being different • Love of nature • Love of animals • Public-spiritedness and amateurism • Formality and informality • Privacy and sex		11 The law	107
		The police and the public • Crime and criminal procedure • The system of justice • The legal profession
		12 International relations	113
		British people and the rest of the world • The British state and the rest of the world • Transatlantic relations • European relations • Relations inside Great Britain • Great Britain and Northern Ireland

- 13 Religion 121
 Politics • Anglicanism • Catholicism • Other conventional Christian churches • Other religions, churches, and religious movements
- 14 Education 130
 Historical background • Modern times: the education debates • Style • School life • Public exams • Education beyond sixteen
- 15 The economy and everyday life 141
 Earning money: working life • Work organizations • Public and private industry • The distribution of wealth • Using money: finance and investment • Spending money: shopping • Shop opening hours
- 16 The media 151
 The importance of the national press • The two types of national newspaper • The characteristics of the national press: politics • The characteristics of the national press: sex and scandal • The BBC • Television: organization • Television: style
- 17 Transport 161
 On the road • Public transport in towns and cities • Public transport between towns and cities • The channel tunnel • Air and water
- 18 Welfare 167
 The benefits system • Social services and charities • The National Health Service • The medical profession
- 19 Housing 173
 Houses, not flats • Private property and public property • The importance of 'home' • Individuality and conformity • Interiors: the importance of cosiness • Owning and renting • Homelessness • The future
- 20 Food and drink 183
 Eating habits and attitudes • Eating out • Alcohol • Pubs
- 21 Sport and competition 190
 A national passion • The social importance of sport • Cricket • Football • Rugby • Animals in sport • Other sports • Gambling
- 22 The arts 200
 The arts in society • The characteristics of British arts and letters • Theatre and cinema • Music • Words • The fine arts
- 23 Holidays and special occasions 207
 Traditional seaside holidays • Modern holidays • Christmas • New Year • Other notable annual occasions