tations, elsewhere there may be concerns. Today, however, the EU is in a very critical state, which has also caused the global geopolitical movement of the West, especially the US towards Eurasia, the spreading „pandemic”, the awakening of a confrontation between the US, Russia, the Islamic world and China. Given the situation, the EU must redefine its geopolitics and place (especially between the US, Russia, China, the Arab and Islamic worlds and Africa) in the global power system. Now it is not clear and readable, it moves between
