

	Introduction: The Rise of China and the Capitalist World Order: The “Four-China” Nexus Li Xing	1
1	The Eastern Wind Will Not Subside: China’s Long March Back to the Future? Jacques Hersh	25
2	The Myths and Realities of the Rising Powers: Is China a Threat to the Existing World Order? Mammo Muchie and Li Xing	51
3	China and the International Aid System: Transformation or Cooptation? Paul Opoku-Mensah	71
4	The Diaspora and the Rise of Nations: China and Africa Compared Li Xing and Paul Opoku-Mensah	87
5	Peak Energy and the Limits to Economic Growth: China and the World Li Minqi	117
6	The Transformation of China: The Next between Internalities and Externalities Li Xing	135
7	Chinese Globalization: State Strategies and their Societal Anchoring Stig Thøgersen and Clemens Stubbe Østergaard	161

8	Why is the Chinese Communist Party Able to Sustain its Hegemony in Eras of Great Transformation?	187
	Li Xing and Peer Møller Christensen
	Index	203