

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	xiii
Table of Cases	xv
Table of Legislation	xxi
Introduction	1
Further Reading	8
1. The Rise of Czech Constitutionalism: History and Context	9
I. The Rise and Fall of the Kingdom of Bohemia.....	10
II. Influence of Foreign Legal Cultures	11
III. Czech Constitutional Scholarship and its Changing Role Over Time.....	13
IV. Inter-war Czechoslovakia	17
V. The Communist Legacy	19
VI. Democratic Transition and Dealing with the Past.....	23
VII. The Dissolution of Czechoslovakia.....	25
VIII. Return to Europe	26
IX. Where are the People?.....	29
X. Conclusion	30
Further Reading	31
2. The Challenge of a Pluralist Constitution	33
I. Drafting the 1993 Constitution	34
II. The Pluralist Constitution	39
III. The Eternity Clause	41
IV. International and Supranational Sources.....	45
V. Super-statutes	50
VI. Constitutional Conventions.....	51
VII. Judicial Decisions as a Source of Constitutional Law	54
VIII. Conclusion	57
Further Reading	58

3. Constitutional Principles	59
I. The Democratic Principle.....	60
II. The Rechtsstaat Principle	64
III. Principle of the Separation of Powers.....	68
IV. Principle of Sovereignty	70
V. Principle of the Unitary State	71
VI. Protection of Fundamental Rights	73
VII. The Implicit Welfare State Principle.....	76
VIII. Conclusion	77
Further Reading	78
4. The Czech Parliament.....	79
I. Basic Structure: The Chamber of Deputies and the Senate.....	80
II. Competences of the Parliament and its Chambers.....	82
III. The Procedural Limits of Parliamentary Power	89
IV. Parliamentary Elections and the Czech Political Party System in Turmoil	94
V. Scandals, Corruption and Immunities	100
VI. Conclusion	102
Further Reading	102
5. The Growing Tension within the Double-Headed Executive	104
I. The Challenge of a Double-Headed Executive	104
II. Over-achieving President and Under-achieving Governments.....	110
III. The State of Emergency and the Hidden Powers of the Executive	122
IV. The Quest to Depoliticise the State Administration.....	124
V. Conclusion	125
Further Reading	126
6. Local Governance.....	127
I. The Centre and the Periphery	129
II. The Structure of Territorial Self-Governance	131
III. Election of Municipal and Regional Bodies.....	132
IV. Direct Democracy at the Local Level.....	133
V. The Rise of the Municipal Power.....	134
VI. It is All About Taxes and EU Subsidies	136

VII.	Local Self-Governance in the EU.....	139
VIII.	Conclusion: Towards Moderate Decentralisation	140
	Further Reading	141
7.	The Judicial Branch	142
	I. Setting the Scene: Key Players within Czech Judicial Politics	144
	II. Who are the Czech Judges?.....	146
	III. The Constitutional Court.....	149
	IV. Basic Features of the Ordinary Judiciary.....	153
	V. Civil and Criminal Courts	154
	VI. Administrative Courts	155
	VII. Prohibition of Special Courts and Tribunals	157
	VIII. The War(s) of the Courts	158
	IX. Czech Courts and European Supranational Courts: A Complicated Relationship.....	159
	X. Constitutional Politics of the Judicial Branch.....	161
	XI. Conclusion: From the Judicialisation of Politics to the Politicisation of the Judiciary.....	164
	Further Reading	165
8.	Human Rights Constitutionalism.....	166
	I. The Charter and the Rest: The Pluralist Nature of Human Rights Protection in Czechia.....	168
	II. How to Challenge the State: Constitutional Review, General Courts, Administrative Review and the Ombudsman	170
	III. Human Dignity as a Fundamental Right?	175
	IV. Proportionality as a Key Unifying Principle?	178
	V. Positive Obligations and the Challenge of Socio-economic Rights.....	181
	VI. Public/Private Distinction and the Importance of Drittwirkung	184
	VII. The Influence of the European Convention on Human Rights.....	188
	VIII. Selective Judicial Activism – Expounding or Expanding Human Rights?	192
	IX. Conclusion	194
	Further Reading	195

Conclusion: Dynamics of Constitutional Change and the Search for Constitutional Identity	196
I. Formal Amendments in a Rigid System.....	196
II. Constitutional Interpretation and Informal Amendments as a Mechanism of Constitutional Change.....	199
III. The Unconstitutional Constitutional Amendments Doctrine	200
IV. Conflicting Legacies and the Search for Constitutional Identity	202
V. Concluding Remarks: A Danger of Democratic Backsliding?.....	209
 Index	 213