

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Foreword | 9 |
| Cuba: A Neighbour of Latin America | |
| Aylwin: The Modern Day Rift between Cuba and Latin America | 13 |
| Monge: The Homeland of José Martí Has Been Betrayed | 17 |
| Castaño: The Reciprocal Duty of Cuba and Latin America | 23 |
| Lacalle: Joining Forces: Mobilizing Political and Intellectual Elites | 29 |
| Silva: Uniting States of Mind in Latin America | 35 |
| Llano: Ideas Cannot Be Killed | 41 |
| Cuba: A Neighbour of Europe | |
| Aznar: Cuba is the Unsolved Problem of the West | 47 |
| Palouš: The Bermuda Triangle of Support, Multi-lateralism and Communication | 51 |
| Malmström: The Reality of "Stable Conflicts": the European Parliament Perspective | 55 |
| Moragas: The International Recognition of Prisoners and Dissidents | 61 |
| Ouzský: Defining EU Policy and Utilizing Experience | 67 |
| Salafranca: The Limits on Freedom in Cuba | 71 |
| Lessons Learnt | |
| Pithart: We, the People, Must Repay the Debt | 77 |
| González: The Perfect Dictatorship | 81 |
| Martínez: A User's Guide to a Perfect Latin American Transition | 85 |
| Hrušovský: Shared History, Fear and Enthusiasm | 91 |
| Laar: Economy for Beginners | 93 |
| Franco: Helping the People to Help Themselves | 97 |
| Wuori: Winning Hearts and Minds: the Legal Perspective | 103 |
| Dimitrov: Assisting the Transition Process: Speed, Clarity and Definition | 107 |

Roadmap to Success

| | |
|--|-----|
| Calzón: The Importance of Small Acts on the Road to Transition | 113 |
| Guttiérrez: Storming the Cuban Bastille | 117 |
| Walker: International Solidarity is the Antidote to Fear | 121 |
| Corbalán: Cooperation in the Development of an Independent Civil Society: a Pending Issue | 127 |
| Zumpolle: Trade, Tourism and Hypocrisy | 133 |
| Del Toro: Managing the Flow of Financial Assistance | 137 |
| González: Non-governmental Policy towards Cuba | 141 |

Bridges to Cuba

| | |
|---|-----|
| Montaner: The International "Cuban Problem" | 147 |
| Pilip: Big Distance, Small Difference | 151 |
| Salvia: Why we Interfere in Cuba | 153 |
| Andreeșcu: Communication is the Key | 157 |
| Bubeník: Hopes of a Successful Contra Revolutionary | 161 |
| Rubio: Exposing the True Story of Cuba | 165 |
| Kirkpatrick: The History and the Fate of Fidel Castro | 171 |
| Documents | 175 |
| The Prague Memorandum | 177 |
| Appeal to the Governments of the New European Democracies to work together to put an end to the abuses of human rights in Cuba | 181 |
| For Democracy and Human Rights in Cuba (Declaration of Parliamentarians) | 183 |
| Opening address and Closing Words at the conference of the ICDC by Václav Havel | 185 |
| Opening address at the conference of the ICDC by Czech Minister of Foreign Affairs Cyril Svoboda | 189 |
| Greetings from the Internal Opposition to the International Committee for Democracy in Cuba | 191 |
| Letter of the Consejo National del Presidio Politico Cubano presented by Martin Palouš | 193 |
| Appendix | 195 |
| About ICDC | 197 |
| Program of the Summit | 199 |
| About People In Need | 205 |
| ICDC members and Summit Participants | 209 |
| The San José Memorandum | 227 |