

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
Acknowledgments	x
WHEN FORMS FALL APART: AN INTRODUCTION	1
Disformations Open Form to New Formations	5
Formal Disturbances Are Grounded in the Affective
Operations that Rewrite Form	10
Aesthetic Forms Think with and through Intermedia Figures	15
Chapter 1
FACING THE FACELESS: MODERNISM, WAR, AND THE WORK OF DISFIGURATION	23
Shattering the Face in Modernism	25
Toward the Affective Work of the Formless	33
Inflicting Wounds upon Language: Gueules Cassées	37
Rewriting the Faceless Experience	41
Chapter 2
CURVES THAT BREAK THE FRAME: ON THE RELENTLESS ABSORPTION OF THE WALLPAPER PATTERN	43
Nabokov's Unruly Geometry of Wallpaper	45
Rococo, or the Broken Frame	48
Boredom, Fascination, and the Screen of Hallucination	54
For a Morphological Reading of Gilman's Wallpaper	58
Between Excess and Absence: The Patterns of Madness	63
Chapter 3
HOW TEXT BECOMES DIATEXT: GEMINI AND PERFORMATIVITY OF THE GARBAGE DUMP	71
Speaking for Rubbish: Tournier's Dandy Garbage Man versus Waste Studies	73
The Media Archaeology of Garbage	77
Reading a Figure, Trashing the Subject	81
From Metatext to Diatext	86

Chapter 4

THE PORTRAIT OF ABSENCE, OR WHEN THE EMPTY

CHAIRS GET CROWDED 91

Chairs without Sitters: Weiner, Kosuth, and the Missing

Subject 93

Tracing the Present Absence with van Gogh, Derrida, and

Nancy 98

Chairing Not Sharing, Shifting Not Sitting: A Media Swap

in Ionesco's The Chairs 105

— Decentered, Not Vanished 110

CODA: AFFECTIVE COMPOUNDS MAKE A MEDIA EXCESS 113

Notes 119

Bibliography 130

Index 144