

Contents

List of Figures	vii
List of Tables	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
1 Church and Religion in the Enlarged Europe: Analyses of the Social Significance of Religion in East and West Detlef Pollack, Olaf Müller and Gert Pickel	1
2 Church, Religion and Spirituality in Finland Kimmo Kääriäinen and Kati Niemelä	27
3 Ireland in the Twenty-first Century: Secularization or Religious Vitality? Karen Andersen	51
4 Portugal: Secularization and Religious Vitality of the Roman Catholic Church in a Southern European Country Helena Vilaça	77
5 The Religious Landscape in Germany: Secularizing West – Secularized East Olaf Müller, Detlef Pollack and Gert Pickel	95
6 Questioning Secularization? Church and Religion in Poland Dorota Hall	121
7 Secularization or De-secularization? The Challenges of and from the Post-Soviet Experience Marat Shterin	143
8 Some Aspects of Religiosity in Estonia Eva-Liisa Jaanus	167

9	Church and Religion in Hungary: Between Religious Individualization and Secularization Gergely Rosta	187
10	Croatia's Religious Story: The Coexistence of Institutionalized and Individualized Religiosity Krunoslav Nikodem and Siniša Zrinščak	207
11	Differentiated Secularization in Europe: Comparative Results Gert Pickel, Detlef Pollack and Olaf Müller	229
	Index	257