

CONTENTS

Cambridge English Qualification A2 Key for Schools Exam (otherwise known as Cambridge Key for Schools) is set at A2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. It consists of three papers, each testing a different level of ability in English: Reading and Writing

Exam Overview 5

Practice Test 1 with Guidance 6

Reading and Writing 8

Listening 20

Speaking 27

Practice Test 2 31

Reading and Writing 32

Listening 42

Speaking 48

Visuals for Speaking Tests 52

Test 1 52

Test 2 53

Speaking and Writing Banks 54

Speaking bank 54

Writing bank 58

	Part 1: three-option multiple choice. Reading and writing tasks including matching, fill-in-the-blanks and short-answer questions.	Part 1: reading short texts for the main idea and the writer's purpose.
	Part 2: two longer texts for understanding.	Part 2: reading and choosing appropriate words, phrases and sentence patterns.
	Part 3: open choice. Short text with the gaps. Completing the text with one word in each gap.	Part 3: reading and writing appropriate words to fit in the gaps.
	Part 4: guided writing: writing a short message. Reading an email or reading about an occasion and writing an email.	Part 4: writing an email to a friend (including three pieces of information). 25 words or more.
	Part 5: guided writing: writing a short narrative. Five pictures which show a story.	Part 5: Writing the story shown in the three pictures. 35 words or more.
Listening Five Parts 25 questions	Part 1: three-option multiple choice. Listening to five short dialogues and choosing the correct picture for each answer.	Part 1: listening to identify key information.
	Part 2: short monologues. Listening to a longer monologue and writing the missing words. Short text to be filled in five gaps.	Part 2: listening and writing down information.
	Part 3: three-option multiple choice. Listening to a longer dialogue and choosing the correct answer to five questions.	Part 3: listening to identify key information, feelings and opinions.
	Part 4: three-option multiple choice. Listening to five short dialogues or monologues and choosing the correct answer for each text-based question.	Part 4: listening for gist, main idea or topic.
	Part 5: matching. Listening to a longer dialogue and matching the questions with seven options. An answer key is given.	Part 5: listening to identify specific information.
Speaking Two Parts	Part 1: interview/examined conversation. 3-4 minutes.	Part 1: giving personal information.
	Part 2: collaborative task. Two-way conversation with visual prompts. Examinee asks two more questions to broaden the topic. 3-6 minutes.	Part 2: asking and answering simple questions, expressing likes and dislikes and giving reasons.