

Contents

On Ivan Poldauf's Collected Papers (Michaela Martinková, Markéta Janebová & Jaroslav Macháček)	7
A Decennium of Modern English Studies	17
Further Comments on Gustav Kirchner's Gradadverbien	35
Some Points on Negation in Colloquial English	43
The Third Syntactical Plan	51
On Lexical Limitations to Grammatical Categories	65
The Have Construction	79
Building Up a Structured Complex of Aims	97
Evaluative Predication	115
Some Notes on the Signalization of the Plural in English Nouns	131
The So-Called Medio-Passive in English	141
Case in Contemporary English	163
Semantics, Lexicology, and Generative Grammar	177
Form and Meaning – Their Interplay in Morphology	189
On a Type of Tension inside an Utterance	219
Factive, Implicative, Evaluative Predicates	225
A New Restriction Imposed on the Occurrence of [ə] in English	265
Fact, Non-Fact and the Place of Phasal and Some Other Expressions	281
Towards a Theory of English Word-Stress	293
Sign and Society	315
Phonological Aspects of the Adoption of English Words by Czech	331
Verbal Aspect: A Slavonic-English Comparison	339
The Rise and Development of English Studies in the Country of the Prague School	349
Germanic Stress in English Words	357
Appendix I: Bibliography of Professor Ivan Poldauf's Publications (Jiří Nosek)	367
Appendix II: A Short Historical Excursion into the the Post-Prague Spring "Normalization" Process at the Prague Faculty of Arts	381
Errata in the Original English Texts	383
Author Index	391