Contents

Foreword by Brian E. Daley, SJ ix
Preface xv
Abbreviations xvii

Introduction: Development as Meaning in Trinitarian Doctrine 1

1. Fourth-Century Trinitarian Theology: History and Interpretation 15
Before Nicaea 15
The Early Stages of Controversy 17
Crisis and Resolution 20
Categories and Interpretation 27

2. Development of Trinitarian Doctrine: A Model and Its Application 33
Common Experience at the Threshold of Nicaea 36
Trinitarian Theologians of Unity of Will 41
Trinitarian Theologians of Unity of Being 79

3. Athanasius: The Crucified Lord and Trinitarian Deification 99
The Divinity of the Crucified and the Christian Story of Salvation 100
Constructing a Trinitarian Hermeneutics 108
Nicaea and the Dialectic of Scripture and Doctrine 127
Theology of the Holy Spirit 133
Christian Life in the Trinity 148

4. Gregory of Nyssa: The Infinite Perfection of Trinitarian Life 157

The Doctrine of Against Eunomius 158

The Trinitarian Systematic Theology of the Catechetical Oration 194

Theology of the Holy Spirit 204

Defining the Trinity? Three Hypostaseis, One Ousia 212

Christian Life in the Trinity 235

5. Augustine's De Trinitate: Trinitarian Contemplation as Christological Quest 241

Augustine's Trinitarian Epistemology 242

Scriptural Exposition of God as Trinity 249

The Trinitarian Image in Humanity 258

Human Certainty and Seeing the Trinity 262

Conclusion: Retrieving the Systematic Scope of Nicene Theology 281

Bibliography 293

Subject Index 307

Index of Modern Authors 315

Index of Ancient Sources 317