

Contents

About this book	1
About the authors	3
Preface	5

PART I

Introduction	10
Teaching Perinatal Palliative Care	12
Teaching PPC to Students of Midwifery and Neonatal/Paediatric Care	12
Teaching General Nursing and General Medicine Students	17
Teaching PPC to Professionals	18
The Perinatal Loss Care Blended Educational Programme in the Czech Republic	21
Education Content	26
Teaching Methods	28
Thought-Provoking Questions, Questions for Discussion	28
Practical Exercises	30
Pre-briefing, Simulation and Debriefing	32
Exercises Focused on Self-Care, Self-Reflection, and Mental Hygiene	40
Specifics of Teaching: Rules for Working with Students	43
Students' Emotions	44
Confidence and Safety	46
Agenda-Led Outcome-Based Analysis	48
How Can I Teach Active Listening and Communication?	50

Recommendations for Teaching Communication with Bereaved Parents	52
Communication Between the Teacher and His/Her Students ...	60
Acquiring Skills and Personal Growth	61
Legal and Ethical Aspects	62
Evaluation of PPC Teaching	64

PART II

Death, Mourning, Grief	74
Communicating Bad News	80
Termination of Pregnancy, Abortion, Perinatal Palliative Care	85
Stillbirth, Early Neonatal Death	88
Rituals of Infant Death	97
Hospital Care for Parents	103
Coping Strategies	108
Impact of Loss on Family and Relationships	112
Complications in the Grieving Process	118
Professional and Lay Support for Parents	121
Family Care in Pregnancy Subsequent to Stillbirth	125
Caregivers' Mental Strain and Self-Care	130
Conclusion	136
Final word	140
Publication Summary	142
Theoretical background	142
The aim of the publication	142
Applied methodology	143
Results	143
Keywords	143
References	144
DVD content	156