On the Cover

This month's cover highlights the holiday of Diwali (also called Deepavali), celebrated this month by Hindus, Jains, Sikhs, and some Buddhists. The 5-day long festival originated in the Indian subcontinent and is now celebrated by diaspora populations across the globe. Diwali symbolizes the spiritual “victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance.” Celebrations include lighting of diyas (lamps), pujas (prayers), creation of rangoli (colorful designs made of colored powder, sand, flower petals, and/or rice), fireworks, gift-giving, fasting, and feasting.
