Contents

1 Setting a Context 1
1.1 A Place of Reference 1
1.2 Defining Characteristics of Small Towns and Mid-Sized Cities 3
1.3 Implication of Social Transformations on Retooling Town Centres 5
1.3.1 Sociodemographic Trends 6
1.3.2 Environmental Concerns 8
1.3.3 Economic Transformations 9
1.4 Anatomy of Places' Decline and Renewal Challenges 10
1.5 Principles of Sustainable Planning for Urban Renewal 14
1.6 Retooling for Sustainability 17
1.6.1 Cornwall, Ontario 17
1.6.2 Stony Plain, Alberta 20
1.7 Final Thoughts 29
References 31

2 The Form of Small Town Centres 33
2.1 A Place of Reference 33
2.2 Location and Form of Small Towns 34
2.3 The Genesis and Evolution of Suburban Towns 36
2.4 Sustainable Land Uses in Small Town Centres 46
2.5 Shaping Communities' Forms 48
2.5.1 Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta 48
2.5.2 Mundare, Alberta 51
2.6 Final Thoughts 56
References 62

3 Weaving in with Nature 63
3.1 A Place of Reference 63
3.2 Yardsticks for Environmental Performance 64
3.3 Adopting to Topography 67
3.4 Planting Principles for Small Towns 72
3.5 Streets and Buildings Design 75

3.6 Considering Waterways, Rivers, and Oceans 79
3.7 Small Towns Renewal in Cold Regions 85
3.8 Integrating Communities and Nature 87
3.8.1 Ponoka, Alberta 87
3.8.2 Sainte-Genevieve, Quebec 91
3.9 Final Thoughts 97
References 97

4 Mobility and Connectivity 101
4.1 A Place of Reference 101
4.2 Macro Network Systems in Small Towns 102
4.3 Transit-Oriented Development (TOD) 104
4.4 Planning Active Transportation 108
4.5 Introducing Public Transit 111
4.6 Parking Strategies in Towns' Centres 114
4.7 Utilities and Services 117
4.8 Renewing Centre with Improved Mobility 121
4.8.1 Westlock, Alberta 121
4.8.2 Ilderton, Ontario 126
4.9 Final Thoughts 129
References 132

5 Dwelling in the Core 135
5.1 A Place of Reference 135
5.2 New Households, New Housing 136
5.2.1 Live-Work Residences 137
5.2.2 Ageing in Place 138
5.2.3 Multigenerational Dwellings 138
5.2.4 Small Homes 140
5.3 Dwellings for Small Towns' Centre 141
5.3.1 Mixed-Use Buildings 142
5.3.2 Zero-Lot-Line 142
5.3.3 Town and Terraced Housing 143
5.3.4 Narrow Homes 144
5.4 Sustainable and Resource Efficient Homes 145
5.4.1 Net-Zero Homes 146
5.4.2 Water-Efficient Homes 148
5.4.3 Designing for Passive and Active Solar Gains 149
5.4.4 Green Roofs 154
5.5 Housing in the Centre 156
5.5.1 Komoka, Ontario 156
5.5.2 Iqaluit, Nunavut 160
5.6 Final Thoughts 163
References 166

6 Preserving the Old 169
6.1 A Place of Reference 169
6.2 The Evolution of Heritage Conservation in Small Towns 171
6.3 The Value of "Old": Advantages and Challenges 174
6.4 Infill Housing 181
6.5 Principles and Strategies of Historic Preservation 186
6.6 New Interventions in Old Places 189
6.6.1 Lethbridge, Alberta 189
6.6.2 Cornwall, Ontario (Conversion) 194
6.7 Final Thoughts 201
References 202

7 Wealth Generation by Design 205
7.1 A Place of Reference 205
7.2 Unique Economic Landscapes Affecting Small Towns 207
7.3 Creating and Attracting Contemporary Industries 210
7.4 Developing a Tourist Industry 213
7.5 Generating Wealth in Small Towns 220
7.5.1 Langford, British Columbia 220
7.5.2 Peace River, Alberta 224
7.6 Final Thoughts 234
References 235

8 Town Centres as Communal Living Rooms 237
8.1 A Place of Reference 237
8.2 Social Dynamics in Small Communities 239
8.3 Master Planning for Social Interaction 243
8.4 The Importance of Third Places, Place Making, and Public Art 248
8.5 Socializing in the Centre 254
8.5.1 St. Isidore, Alberta 254
8.5.2 Nampa, Alberta 259
8.6 Final Thoughts 266
References 268

Illustration Credits 271

Project Teams 273

Bibliography 277

Index 287