

CONTENTS

Contributing authors ix

Introduction: Giving Voice to Values: an innovation and impact agenda 1
Jerry Goodstein and Mary C. Gentile

PART I

Strengthening the impact of GVV within higher education 5

1 Giving Voice to Values as a way to teach virtue ethics 7
Ira Bedzow

2 Viewing Giving Voice to Values through a pragmatic lens 21
Brian T. Moriarty and R. Edward Freeman

3 Giving Voice to Values and the listener's perspective 41
Jerry Goodstein

4 Integrating Giving Voice to Values across business fields and functions 56
Daniel C. Arce

| | | |
|----------------|--|------------|
| 5 | Giving Voice to Values in educating ethical leaders: lessons learned and ideas for the future | 72 |
| | Christopher Adkins and Jessica McManus Warnell | |
| 6 | Giving Voice to Values in health professions education | 87 |
| | Ira Bedzow and Heidi Waldron | |
| 7 | Giving Voice to Values in support of a mission to educate Africa's next generation of ethical leaders | 101 |
| | Rebecca Awuah | |
| PART II | | |
| | Strengthening the impact of GVV beyond higher education | 121 |
| 8 | Giving Voice to Values in the legal industry | 123 |
| | Carolyn Plump | |
| 9 | Implementing Giving Voice to Values into the workplace: insights from the experience of four organizations | 144 |
| | Jerry Goodstein | |
| 10 | Giving Voice to Values: implementing values-driven leadership development in the Chinese context | 165 |
| | Liang Yu | |
| 11 | The promise of Giving Voice to Values for coaching leaders | 181 |
| | Rachel Schaming | |
| 12 | Introducing Giving Voice to Values to new audiences | 199 |
| | Jane Cote and Claire Kamm Latham | |
| 13 | Giving Voice to Values and the digital world: responding to today's and tomorrow's challenges and opportunities | 220 |
| | Debra Newcomer | |
| | Conclusion: looking back and looking ahead: Giving Voice to Values | 241 |
| | Mary C. Gentile | |
| | Index | 254 |