Preface	xxiii
Introduction: activating the present of interdisciplinary methods Celia Lury	1
SECTION 1
Making and assembling	27
1 Making and assembling: towards a conjectural paradigm for interdisciplinary research Rachel Fensham and Alexandra Heller-Nicholas	29
2 Arranging (enchaînement) Harmony Bench	41
3 Drawing Matthew Reason	47
4 Experimenting Thomas Jellis	53
5 Figuring Margaret Wertheim	57
6 Imaging Rebecca Coleman	61
7 Rescaling Ramon Lobato	68
8 Sand drawing Jennifer Green	71

SECTION 2

Capturing and composing

81

1	Capturing and composing: doing the epistemic and the ontic together Emma Uprichard	83
2	Abducting Ana Teixeira de Melo	90
3	Archiving Luciana Duranti	95
4	iBorder/ing Holger Pötzsch	99
5	Casing Charles C. Ragin	104
6	Diffractioning Leila Dawney	108
7	Figurationing Leila Dawney	112
8	Notating Moritz Wedell	116
9	Prototyping Alberto Corsín Jiménez	122
10	Retrieving Carolin Gerlitz	126
11	Timing Barbara Adam	132
12	Visualizing data: a view from design space Greg McInerney	133

1	Engaging and distributing Sybille Lammes	145
2	Affective analysis Laura U. Marks	152
3	Data-sprinting: a public approach to digital research Tommaso Venturini, Anders Munk and Axel Meunier	158
4	Digging Jussi Parikka	164
5	Issuecrawling: building lists of URLs and mapping website networks Richard Rogers	169
6	Moving methods Monika Büscher	176
7	Playing with ethics Miguel Angel Sicart	183
8	Sensing atmospheres Sasha Engelmann and Derek McCormack	187

SECTION 4

Of interdisciplinarity 195

1	Of interdisciplinarity Angela Last	197
2	Diagramming Gail Davies and Helen Scalway	209
3	Conversation between Angela Last and Nina Lykke Nina Lykke and Angela Last	228
4	Haunting seedy connections Tahani Nadim	239
5	Dirty methods as ethical methods? In the field with 'The Cultural Politics of Dirt in Africa, 1880–Present' Stephanie Newell, Patrick Oloko, John Uwa, Olutoyosi Tokun, Jane Nebe, Job Mwaura, Rebecca Onwong'a, Ann Kirori and Claire Craig	248

SECTION 5

Valuing and validating

1	Valuing and validating: on the 'success' of interdisciplinary research Mike Michael	269
2	Compromising Mike Michael	279
3	Deriving Carl DiSalvo	284
4	Disrupting Yoko Akama and Sarah Pink	287
5	Dissenting Manuel Tironi	291
6	Exemplifying Tuur Driesser	296
7	Explaining Priska Gisler	301
8	Generalizing Joanna Latimer and Rolland Munro	306
9	Interdisciplines, and Indigenous research and methodologies Catriona Elder and Jonathon Potskin	311
10	Troubling Anne Galloway	317
11	Problem-making Alan Irwin and Maja Horst	329
12	Project-ing: from differences to design Connor Graham	334
13	Qualifying Gay Hawkins	339
14	Scaling Masato Fukushima	343

15 Speculating Alex Wilkie	347
16 Wedging Jane Calvert	352
Index	355

Figures

1.1.1 Anna Proctor's coast represented through a lot, a map, and a harbor	44
1.1.2 Text in drawing	48
1.1.3 Laying ground	50
1.1.4 Angular part full of energy: Adell's collage of How the Dead by Scudder Baker	54
1.1.5 Diagrammatic structure of hexagons	56
1.1.6 Abstraction of the hyperbolic plane constructed from hexagons and heptagons	59
1.1.7 Anna's image	63
1.1.8 Scheme of postcard stack	65
1.1.9 Outline of research and instructions included on postcard	66
1.1.10 Using the gray-scale	72
1.1.11 Small objects such as leaves are used to represent nature's character	73
1.1.12 An action results in a mark on the ground and ends with a domain given in the air	74
2.1.1 (a) Visualizing data from financial reports, (b) the rise of life, (c) stolen incidents, (d) persistence in winter voting patterns, (e) climate change trends	111
2.1.2 (f) poems, (g) the evolution of On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin	113
2.1.3 Animate's Quartet, as seen as raw data and simple exploratory statistics	134
2.1.4 Visualizing Animate's Quartet	134
2.1.5 Revealing the effectiveness of Animate's Quartet	134
2.1.6 Further variations on Animate's Quartet	135
2.1.7 Partial examples of the same data visualized in different ways of Design Space	136
2.1.8 Visualizing two data series with contrasting demands	137
2.1.9 Making comparisons within a single chart	157
2.1.10 Visualizing stolen incidents	140
2.2.1 DIY course, electronic art and design	145
2.2.2 Do-It-Yourself-ism	167
2.3.1 Google as result of a query for right-wing extremist groups in Spain	171
2.3.2 Simple spreadsheets with handles of groups and URLs per group	172
2.3.3 Animate query as eyeballing technique, second iteration	173
2.3.4 Sensors reimagining of the social order of traffic	175
2.3.5 Ian Anderson 'Searcher', taking names from reverse dog-mounted video	179
2.3.6 Moving with the troubles of digital tracking	181
2.3.7 Arrows launching at White Sands	190
2.3.8 How Art Sits	191
2.3.9 Learn to Coast, Eric Fugle	191
