

LIST OF CONTENTS

Preface (Vlasta Winkelhöferová) – 11

Translator's notes – 15

IN YOKOHAMA – 19

Sailing through the Bay. – 'The China' drops her anchor. – Hotel servants. – Adieus. – Disembarking. – First impressions on Japanese soil. – Bund Avenue. – Jinriksha – the Japanese rickshaw-man. – The Grand Hotel. – Uninvited guests. – Tattooing. – Advertising. – Guidebooks. – Practicing the Japanese language. – Japanese guides. – Dwarfed pine trees. – Hotel facilities. – A drinks' price list. – Imperial emblems. – Exchanging money. – The Austro-Hungarian Consulate. – Kurumaya – the Japanese charioteer. – Visiting Consul Kreitner. – Letter of conduct. – Climate. – Globetrotter types. – Public auctions. – Photographs. – Postal services. – The etymology of the name 'Yokohama'. – Kanagawa. – Japan's maritime links. – European settlers. – The number of foreigners in Japan. – The Bluff foreign settlement. – The foreigners' club. – Residents. – Foreigners' diet. – Chinese cooks. – The insect collector. – Sextupod songsters.

TO ENOSHIMA, THE ABODE OF THE GODDESS OF BEAUTY – 65

Railways. – Maritime transport and telegraphs. – Railway stations. – Railway carriages. – A grove of camphor trees. – Crabs on the move. – Siliceous fungi. – The legend of the rise of Enoshima. – The dragon in Japanese mythology. – Mother-of-pearl products. – Philipp von Siebold. – Goddess Kwanon. – Shinto pilgrims. – Gohei paper streamers. – Shinto deities. – Shinto and Buddhist places of worship. – Pilgrims. – Shinto altars. – The lotus, sacred star anise and sakaki shrub. – Yeboshi reefs.

KAMAKURA – 79

The divine couple, Izanagi and Izanami. – Goddess Amaterasu. – Emperor Jimmu Tenno. – Imperial insignia. – The Mikado. – Buddhist sectarians. – The shogun. – Yoritomo. – The Buddha. – Buddha's statue in Kamakura. – Kreitner and Poche. – Tsurugaoka Temple. – Salisburia tree. – Binzuru-sama the healer. – Miraculous shimeishi. – God Hachiman.

HOW JAPAN WAS REVEALED TO THE REST OF THE WORLD – 97

Marco Polo. – Cipangu, Nippon. – Mendez Pinto. – Francis Xavier. – Balthazar de Torrez. – Jesuit colleges. – Christianity in Japan. – Persecution of Christians. – Shogun Iyeyasu. – Japanese castes. – The samurai. – Daimio warrior lords. – Hara-kiri. – The Dutch. – Kämpfer and Thunberg. – Smoking tobacco. – Commodore Perry. – New treaties. – Sir Rutherford Alcock. – German expedition to Japan. – Attacks on foreign ships at Shimonoseki. – Japanese respect for Western learning. – Enthronement of Emperor Mutsuhito. – Minister Okubo. – Rebels defeated in Uyeno Park. – Prince Kito Shirakawa. – The Mikado's residence moves to Yedo Castle. – Japan's new government. – Imperial Jubilee. – The Imperial successor announced. – Feudal lords. – The spread of Western learning. – Empress Haruko. – Gregorian calendar introduced. – Emissaries despatched to overseas courts. – Missionary schools. – The Satsuma Rebellion. – New trends in Japan. – Constitutional government. – Members of the government.

TO TOKIO – 121

The journey. – Kanagawa. – In a railway carriage. – Five most valued field crops. – Batatas. – The introduction of potatoes. – Edible arum. – Koniaku tubers. – Herons. – Crane species.

IN TOKIO – 127

The size of Tokio. – Tokio population. – Buildings. – Fires. – Earthquakes. – Legends about the origin of earthquakes. – Nippon-bashi Bridge. – The horse-drawn tramline. – City lights. – Japanese courtesy. – Personal names. – Pipe-smoking. – Shopkeepers. – The police. – Japanese lacquerware. – Rooves. – City crows. – Buzzards and sparrows. – Falcons and eagles. – Fire-proof storehouses. – Water tanks. – In a cosmetics shop. – Home hairdressers. – Makura neck-rest. – Back-scratchers. – Tooth dye. – Maker of floor-matting. – Japanese hat-maker. – Bamboo wares. – Lacquerware. – Other craft objects. – Ivory carvings. – The vegetable market. – The fish market. – Uyeno Park. – Wisterias. – Kameido Temple. – Toyei-zan Temple. – Uyeno Museum. – Goddess Benten. – Deities Daikoku, Ebisu and Ema-sama. – Asakusa Temple. – Ofuda good-luck tokens. – The six helpers. – Revolving bookshelves. – In Shiba Park. – Stone lanterns. – Buddhist sects. – The 'Temple of the Forty-seven Ronin'. – The ronin legend. – The Imperial Palace. – The Imperial Hotel. – Heinrich von Siebold. – At the Austro-Hungarian Embassy. – Tokio traders' banquet. – Bill of fare. – The military band. – National festivities. – Imperial balls. – The cult of flowers. – Parliament of Shinto saints. – The Chrysanthemum Festival. – Flower gardens in Dangozaka. – Flower arranging. – New Year. – Season of ume blossom. – Season of sakura blossom. – Season of iris blossom. – Lotus and eulalia. – The Maple Festival. – Zoological gardens. – Tailless cats. – Japan's university. – Zoological station. – Scholarly periodicals. – University degrees. – Academic salaries. – School holidays. – Student dormitories. – University buildings. – Public health. – The blind. – Exorcising 'fox disease'. – Theatres. – Teahouses. – Inns. – Movable room-panels. – Smoking, and drinking sake. – Songstresses. – Dancing girls. – Rewarding the dancers. – Japanese music and singing. – Concerts in Tokio. – The national anthem. – The notorious Yoshiwara. – The adornment of courtesans. – Iyeyasu's pronouncement on prostitution.

IN A JAPANESE HOUSEHOLD – 211

The home of Court Councillor Kurizuka. – The house. – The drawing-room. – The tokonoma alcove. – Katanakake sword stands. – Kakemono scrolls. – Art exhibitions. – Eminent masters of the fine arts. – Master joiners. – The Japanese bed. – Lighting. – The family altar. – Jewellery. – The obi sash. – The kimono. – Paper kerchiefs. – Men's attire. – Umbrellas and parasols. – The tea ceremony. – The portable charcoal burner. – At a feast. – Fruit. – Gardens. – Garden flora. – Cultivation of dwarfed pine trees. – Breeding domestic fowl. – Tailless cats. – Livestock. – The Japanese bath. – The Japanese toothbrush. – Parting gifts. – Postal links with America and Europe. – Czech garnets.

ON THE WAY TO SACRED NIKKO – 251

Rail travel to Nikko. – Waiting rooms. – Field cultivation. – The Japanese goddess Ceres. – The honourable peasant estate. – Rice fields. – Artificial manure. – Harvest. – Tilling the soil. – On the threshing floor. – Food made of rice. – Various field crops. – Tea bushes. – Soil composition at Nikko. – Mountains and volcanoes around Nikko. – A cryptomeria avenue. – The sacred bridge over Daiyagawa. – Kago sedan chairs.

NIKKO – 267

Temple art treasures. – A sacred spring. – Sacred white horses. – Temple festivals matsuri. – Inside the main sanctuary. – Iyeyasu's tomb. – The turtle, a symbol of longevity. – Terrifying idols. – Buddha, Amida, and Shaka. – Religion in Japan. – Temple dance performances. – Festivals on the Sumidagawa in Tokio. – Vegetation along the Daiyagawa. – At a cemetery. – Cremation of corpses. – Funeral processions. – Funeral ceremonies. – Coffins and funeral boxes. – Mourning the deceased. – The afterlife. – A stroll to Lake Chuzenji. – Mining. – Mountain vegetation. – Visiting a primary school. – In class. – Popular syllabic scripts. – Chinese numerals. – School statistics. – Pedagogical Museum. – Government approval of textbooks. – Rewarding pupils. – Pedagogical seminars.

CHILDREN'S PARADISE – 295

Large families. – The newborn. – Nurselings. – Breast-feeding. – Naming a child. – No kisses or cuddling. – Gifts for little people. – Shaving a child's head. – Infants' babble. – Carrying a child ombu-style. – Gentle treatment of children. – Bathing children. – Grooming young girls. – Children's amusements. – Children's devotion to their parents. – Smiling faces. – Poems and fairytales.

TO THE HOT SPRINGS OF MIYANOSHITA – 309

The typhoon season. – Mount Fuji. – Climbing Fujisan. – Japanese cottages. – Odawara Bay. – The horse-drawn tramline. – The town of Odawara. – The resort of Yumoto. – Fruit trees. – Hayakawa River. – The hamlet of Kiga. – Hot-spring spas. – Massage. – The temperature of hot springs.

IN THE HAKONE MOUNTAINS - 321

Mountain flora. - The mantis. - Ashinoyu Spa. - Lake Hakone. - Solfataras. - Earthquakes.

ALONG THE TOKAIDO HIGHWAY - 329

The railroad from Tokio to Kioto and Kobe. - Lunch at railway stations. - Work on the track. - Cotton cultivation. - Sugar cane. - Import and export. - Kunozan Temple. - A fisheries exhibition. - Shizuoka Teachers' College. - Archery. - Indoor games. - New Year customs. - Family names. - Provinces of the realm. - Dyer's knotweed. - Buckwheat. - In Nagoya. - City populations. - Manufacture of enamelware. - Ceramics. - Temples in Nagoya. - Fishing with cormorants. - Mount Ibuki. - Ancient cures. - The spread of modern medicine.

KIOTO AND ITS ENVIRONS - 357

Kioto past and present. - Miss Sato Misaki. - Marriage in Japan. - Emancipation of women. - The splendours of Kioto. - Lacquerware. - The centre of silk production. - In a bronze-ware workshop. - To the Katsuragawa Rapids. - To Lake Biwa. - Legends about Biwa. - The Biwa Canal. - The Karasaki pine. - The attack on the Russian Crown Prince. - The Ainu people.

TO NARA - 387

The settlement of Uji. - Tea cultivation. - The sacred grove. - Temple dances. - Temple curiosities. - Fortune-telling.

IN AND AROUND OSAKA - 393

The character of the city. - Rats. - Industries. - Japan's income and expenditure. - The Osaka mint. - Osaka Castle and temples. - By rail to Sumiyoshi. - In Sakai. - Admiral Yukinaga. - The memorable cycad.

OVER HILLS AND DALES TO KOBE - 401

To the hot springs of Arima. - Japanese beer. - Charioteers' charges. - The best rice. - Kobe and Hiogo. - The Bund. - Drying tea. - Import and export. - Empress Jingu Kogo. - Waterfalls near Kobe. - Suwa-yama and the transit of Venus. - Maiko Avenue. - Leaving Kobe. - Three 'Empresses'. - On Japan's Inland Sea. - The Straits of Shimonoseki.

NAGASAKI - 413

Exploring the city. - Coal-producing regions. - Deshima. - Foreigners expelled. - Temples. - Tortoiseshell products. - Ink sticks. - Leaving Japan - 123

List of Illustrations - 421

Josef Kořenský and Japan (Alice Kraemerová) - 429