

Contents

Foreword	I
Introduction	5
PART ONE: ON LANGUAGE
Human Language	17
The Concepts of Language	21
The Diversity of Languages	26
The Features of Language	29
Universals	37
Puzzling, Speaking and Writing	41
The Nature of Grammar	45
Generative Grammar	47
Connectionist Grammar	49
Functionalist Grammar	50
Theories of Grammar and the Origin of Language	52
Language in Other Creatures?	55
Can Animals Learn Languages?	65
Animals, Robots and Sentient Creatures	78
Can Robots Learn Languages?	83
Can Robots Develop a Language?	84

PART TWO: ON ORIGINS

The Other Apes and Us	89
The Evolution of the Primates	93
Bipedal Apes	95
Shaping Stone	97
The Genus Homo	103
Human Diversity	114
Explaining the Characteristics of the Various Species and Languages	117
The Evolution of Language	119
Darwin and the Diversity of Language	137
Explaining the Features of Language	146
Darwin's Explanation	157
Natural Selection	161
Sexual Selection	163
Language and Natural Selection	166
Heredity, Environment and Language	173
Heredity or Environment?	175
How Does Heredity Work?	177
What Kind of Influence Does the Environment Exert?	178
The Natural, the Good and the Right?	180
Language Instincts	181
Language Genes	197

The Language-Ready Brain	203
Outside Right, Inside Left	205
Fossil Brains	208
The Connected Brain	213
The Language-Ready Mind	218

The Cooperative Ape	224
The Importance of Midwives	226
Language and Helpfulness	232
How Did Helpfulness Evolve?	234
When Did We Become Helpful?	242

PART THREE: ON THE ORIGIN OF LANGUAGE

The First Speaker	253
Fossil Speakers	260
Fossil Listeners	262
Fossil Conclusions	263
Did the First Speaker Really Speak?	264
The First Thinker
The First Signer
The Origins of the Sounds of Speech	274
The First Topic of Conversation	278
The Battle of the Singers	280
The Carrion Hunters	283
The Language of Power and the Power of Language	287
Silence in Class?	293
Instead of Picking off Lice	297
Social Control	300
Thinking Whatever You Want Is Great, But Thinking What I Want Is Even Better	302
So What Did We Start Talking About?	306

The Cave Man	313
Fraternisation	317
Neander-talkers?	321
Is it Possible to Reconstruct the Neandertals' Language	323
Cultural "Man"	327
Culture and Language	330
The Cultural Animal	332
Cultural Fossils	334
The First Languages	349
What Are the Features Language Can Do Without?	350
The Simplest Language	353
What Form Did the First Words Take?	355
Atomistic or holistic?
The First Grammar	360
The Evolution of the Language Instincts	364
Constructing Grammar	367
Hierarchical Grammar	371
Where Was the First Language Spoken	380
The Warp and Weft of the Protolanguage	383
Questions and Answers	384
Motivations and mutations
Early or late?
Sudden or gradual?
Atomistic or holistic?

Communicative, musical or a purely cognitive language?

Spoken or signed, or a mixture, or mimed?

Innate or not?

Our Evolution from Jabbering Apes to Talking Humans 401

Illustration sources 397

Further reading 399

Index 403

Acknowledgements 417

About the author and translator 419