

Contents

Preface	xv
Endorsements for Keys to Running Successful Research Projects: All the Things They Never Teach You	xvii
1. Getting Started	1
1.1 Introduction to Using This Book	2
The Checklists	2
Reference—Introduction to the Checklists	5
1.2 Career Planning—Managing Yourself	6
What to Do First?	8
The Research Career Path	9
References—Managing Yourself	10
1.3 Setting the Career Plan—and Your Research Priorities	11
First Thoughts—Check the Priorities You Need to Comply With	12
Build Your Personal Development Plan	12
Next Step—Share Your Ideas	17
Integrate Your Research and Publication Plans	18
Continue Working on Your Career Plan and Objectives	18
Keep an Eye on Your Goals	19
References—Setting Your Career Plan and Research Priorities	19
Further Reading	20
1.4 Project Planning	21
Introduction to Project Planning and Project Management	22
Thinking Out Your Project Plan	23
Next Steps—A More Detailed Project Plan	24
References—Project Planning	28
Associated Documents—Project Planning	29
1.5 Applying for Your Grant	33
Give Yourself Enough Time	34
Read the Guidelines	35
Define Your Objectives	36
Attack This as a Sales Exercise	38
What to Do When Your Application Is Unsuccessful?	39
Opportunities for Early-Career Investigators	40
Reference—Applying for Funding	41
Further Reading	41

CONTENTS

1.6	Preparing the Budget for Your Project	42
	Start With the Basics	45
	The Backup Plan	47
	References—Project Budgets	47
	Further Reading	47
	Associated Documents—Preparing the Budget for Your Project	48
1.7	Work With Your Research Office	49
1.8	Involving Consumers in Your Research	51
	References—Consumer Involvement	55
1.9	Enhance Your Reputation	56
	Use Social Media	57
	Create Your Web Profile	62
	Build a Web Presence for Your Project	64
	Remember the Lay Audience	66
	More Interacting With the Community	69
	Reference—Enhance Your Reputation	70
	Further Reading	70
2.	Building Your Team	71
2.1	The Recruitment Process—Planning and Advertising	72
	Planning a New Position	73
	Recruiting the Right Person	73
	Position Description	73
	Advertising the Position	76
	References—Planning and Advertising	77
	Associated Documents—The Recruitment Process—Planning and Advertising	78
2.2	The Recruitment Process—Interviewing and Selecting	83
	Shortlisting	84
	The Selection Committee	84
	The Interview	85
	Selecting Your Candidate	86
	Checking References	87
	Make Your Offer	88
	Advise the Unsuccessful Applicants	88
	Probation	89
	Associated Documents—Interviewing and Selecting	90
2.3	The Recruitment Process—Orienting Your Staff	98
2.4	Involving Volunteers	103
	Ways to Attract Pro Bono Help	105
	References—Volunteers	106
	Further Reading	106
2.5	Managing Students	107
	Day to Day Student Management	108

	Manage Your Student's Needs and Expectations	113
	References—Managing Students	113
3.	Collaborations	115
3.1	Finding the Right Collaborators	116
	Who Can I Trust?	119
	More Ways to Build Your Network	120
	Collaborations Outside Academia	121
	References—Finding the Right Collaborators	121
3.2	Establishing Your Collaborations	122
	Collaborating for a Project	124
3.3	Collaborations Over Distance	127
	Issues and Concerns in International Research Collaborations	130
	References—Collaborations Over Distance	131
	Further Information	131
	Further Reading Could Include	132
4.	Running the Studies	133
4.1	Elements of Project Planning	134
	First Steps for Project Planning	137
	More About Project Management	139
	References—Project Management	139
4.2	Detailed Project Planning	140
	Understanding the Work Breakdown Structure	141
	How to Draw Up a Work Breakdown Structure	143
	Review Your Timeframe Regularly	144
	Other Tools for Project Planning	145
	Associated Documents—Detailed Project Planning	146
4.3	Understanding Agreements	148
	Funding Agreement	150
	Multi-Institutional Agreement and Memorandum of Understanding	150
	Material Transfer Agreement	153
	Data Use Agreement	154
	Non-Disclosure Agreement	154
	Publication Agreement	154
	Consultancy Agreement	155
	References—Agreements	155
4.4	Developing Your Study Methods	156
	Introduction	158
	Development of Study Manual/Standard Operating Procedures	159
	Laboratory Protocols	165
	Using Laboratory Books	165

CONTENTS

References—Developing Study Methods	168
Further Information	168
Associated Documents—Developing Your Study Methods	170
4.5 Data Storage and Management	180
Secure Storage	182
Backing Up and Storing Your Data	184
File Naming	184
Physical Storage	185
Managing the Laboratory's Reagents	186
Research Data Ownership, Access, and Sharing	186
References—Research Data	189
4.6 Understanding Intellectual Property	190
Why Does Intellectual Property Matter in Research?	191
Intellectual Property and Students	192
References—Intellectual Property	193
4.7 Managing your Project Budget	194
Methods for Managing Project Expenditure	196
Tips for Managing When You Don't Receive Your Full Amount	199
Financial Reporting	201
Seeking Additional Funding	202
Associated Documents—Managing Your Project Budget	203
4.8 Project Meetings	206
4.9 Marketing Your Research to Your Stakeholders	209
Email a Newsletter	212
Talk About Your Work on Social Media	213
Visit Your Stakeholders	213
Have Stakeholders Visit You	214
Keep Your Research Participants Updated	214
Keep Your Website Updated	215
References—Marketing Your Research to Your Stakeholders	215
4.10 More About Marketing—Communication Planning	216
4.11 Equipment and Consumables	220
Planning for Your Equipment	221
Equipment Procurement	222
Looking After Your Equipment	223
Managing Consumables	224
Associated Documents—Equipment and Consumables	226
4.12 Study Participant Recruitment	233
Where to Find the Subjects?	235
Recruitment in Specialist Populations	237
References—Study Recruitment	239
Further Reading	240

4.13	Designing a Questionnaire and Accompanying Study Materials	242
	Check Readability	243
	Set Up for Extracting the Data	245
4.14	Project Reporting	246
	Reporting to Your Funding Body	248
	Reporting to Your Ethics Committee	248
	Reporting to Your Institutional Advisory Committee	248
	Further Reading—Reporting	249
4.15	Risks and Issues	250
	Risk	251
	Risk Management	252
	The Risk Management Process	253
	Issues	256
	Further Reading—Risks and Issues	257
	Associated Documents—Risks and Issues	258
4.16	Project Advisory Committees	260
5.	People Management: For Yourself and Your Team	263
5.1	Finding a Mentor	264
	How Can a Mentor Help You?	266
	Identifying Suitable Mentors	267
	Requirements for a Good Mentee	268
	Requirements for a Good Mentor	271
	References—Mentoring	271
	Further Reading	271
5.2	Looking After Your Team	272
	Research Leadership	274
	Set Expectations	276
	Manage Staff	276
	Performance Review	276
	Performance Management	278
	Conflict in Your Team	280
	Annual Review of the Team's Progress	281
	Provide an Equitable Environment	281
	Communicate With Your Team	283
	Journal Club	283
	Encourage Skill Sharing	284
	Duplicate the Knowledge Within the Team	284
	Cross-Disciplinary Meetings	285
	Provide Networking Opportunities	285
	Encourage Work Life Balance	286
	Handling Stress	288
	Provide a Safe Workplace	289
	Measure Yourself as Leader	290
	References—Looking After Your Team	291

CONTENTS

5.3	Leadership	292
	What Is Leadership?	293
	Set Your Team Vision	293
	Establish a High-Performance Culture	296
	Encourage Collaborative Practices and “Ownership” of Outputs	298
	Promote Research Integrity	299
	Important Leadership Practices	300
	References—Leadership	301
5.4	More About Managing Conflict	302
	Resolving Conflict Between Team Members	303
	Resolving Conflicts Between You and Others in the Team	304
	References—More About Managing Conflict	307
5.5	Mentoring the Next Generation	308
	Mentor Versus Adviser	311
	References—Mentoring	312
	Further Reading	312
5.6	Developing Time Management Skills	313
	References—Developing Time Management Skills	315
5.7	Change Management	316
	Managing Organizational Change and Culture	318
	References—Change Management	322
6.	Wrapping Up Your Project	323
6.1	Considerations in the Last Months of Your Project	324
6.2	Winding Up Your Project Budget	327
	Student Payments	329
	Cost of Publications	329
6.3	Other Important Elements to Tidy Up at the End of Your Project	330
	Sorting Out Your Team	331
	Insurance	331
	Intellectual Property	331
	Safe Storage of Study Records	332
	Disposal of Equipment and Consumables	333
	End of Project Reporting	333
6.4	Further Project Communication	334
	Talk to Your Collaborators	336
6.5	Post-Project Evaluation	337
	Further Reading—Wrapping Up Your Project	339
	Associated Documents—Post-Project Evaluation	340

7.	Research Dissemination	343
7.1	Posters and Presentations	344
	Elements of a Good Presentation	345
	Designing a Good Poster	347
	References—Posters and Presentation	350
	Further Reading	351
7.2	Step-by-Step Guide to the Publication Process	352
	Before You Start Writing	353
	Define Your Target Audience	353
	Choosing a Journal	354
	Some Further Thoughts Before You Get Started	355
	Writing Your Papers	356
	The Abstract	357
	Responding to Reviewer's Comments	358
	Submitting to Another Journal	361
	Authorship and Acknowledgment Guidelines	361
	References—Step by Step Guide to the Publication Process	364
	Further Reading	365
7.3	Next Steps—Promoting Your Publication—and Planning More	366
	Further Promotion	368
	Open Access and Your Institutional Repository	369
	Planning More Publications	370
	References—Next Steps—Promoting Your Publication—and Planning More	370
	Associated Documents—Next Steps—Promoting Your Publication— and Planning More	371
7.4	Documenting Your Research Impact	372
	Thinking About Your Research Impact	373
	Demonstrate Your Scholarly Impact	374
	Demonstrating Wider Impacts	378
	References—Documenting Your Impact	378
7.5	Facilitating Translation—Helping Your Research Move Into Practice	380
7.6	Commercializing Your Research Findings	383
	Some Ways Your Intellectual Property Can Be Protected	385
	References—Commercialization	387
8.	Research Integrity and Responsible Conduct of Research	389
8.1	Introduction to Research Ethics	390
8.2	Ethics Requirements in Human and Animal Research	393
	Ethics Approvals Take Time—Plan for Delays	395
	Ethical Research for Indigenous Peoples	396
	Ethical Research in Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Communities	397

CONTENTS

8.3	Breaches of Ethics and Research Misconduct	398
	Breaches of Research Standards	401
	Research Misconduct	402
	References—Responsible Conduct of Research and Research Integrity	403
	Further Reading	404
8.4	Handling an Adverse Event	406
	Dealing With a Distressed Participant	408
8.5	Privacy and Confidentiality in Research	411
	What is the Difference Between Private Information and Confidential Information?	413
	What Do Researchers Need to Understand?	414
	Maintaining Confidentiality	415
8.6	Other Ethical Considerations	416
	Ethical Funding	417
	Ethical Obligations in Publishing	417
	The Obligations of a Grant Recipient	418
	Legal Requirements in Research	420
	References—Other Ethical Considerations	420
8.7	Conflicts of Interest	421
	Poor Management of Perceived Conflict	421
	Good Management of Potential Conflict	421
	Associated Documents—Conflicts of Interest	425
9.	When Things Go Wrong	427
9.1	Introduction—Potential Challenges in Your Research	429
9.2	Managing Work and Family Commitments	432
	Parental Leave	433
	When You're Back at Work	434
	References—Managing Work and Family Commitments	435
9.3	Gender Bias in the Workplace	436
	References—Gender Bias in the Workplace	438
9.4	Retrieving a Project Which Has Gone Wrong	439
	Resolving Conflict in Your Project	440
	Mending a Broken Collaboration	441
	Reference—Retrieving a Project Which Has Gone Wrong	441
9.5	Some Traps for the Unwary	442
	Being Led Astray by Flattery	442
	University "Takes" Your Funding	443
	Your Grant Is Successful, but for a Reduced Budget	443
	You Budgeted in One Currency but Were Awarded in Another	443
	You Can't Start Because You Don't Have Ethics Approval	443
	Your Project Is Stopped for an Ethics Review	443

You Run Out of Time	444
You Run Out of Money	444
You've Been Sidetracked—Scope Creep	444
10. Keeping an Eye to the Future	445
10.1 Career Management	446
Keep Your Curriculam Vitae Up-to-Date	448
Make Yourself Available for Peer Review	449
Reference—Keeping an Eye to the Future	450
Further Reading	450
10.2 What Comes Next?	451
Mid-Career Researchers	452
Research Leaders	453
10.3 Moving on Gracefully	455
What to Do if Your Supervisor Won't Help	457
Addendum—Some Tips About Biobanking	459
Acknowledgments	465
Glossary	467
Index	469