

CONTENTS

- Third Mythical Conversation* /11
- A Few Comments on the Cycle "The Transformations of Mr. Hadlíz"* /13
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A CLOUD (AS AN EIDERDOWN) /18
- MR. HADLÍZ AS CHARON IN THE MISTS OF THE ACHERON /20
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A PLAYTHING FOR THOSE CONDEMNED TO DEATH /22
- MR. HADLÍZ MISSING A LEG, BUT AN EXPERT SEDUCER NONETHELESS /24
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A BOULDER OF CLOUDS, AS A STORM /26
- MR. HADLÍZ AS AN OMINOUS DANCER (AS SHIVA) /28
- MR. HADLÍZ WITH A SWAN ON THE VERGE OF DISAPPEARING /30
(AS A NIX, AS LOHENGRIN, AS WOTAN . . .)
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A PROVINCIAL FEUDAL LORD
(AS A GREAT MARQUIS) /32
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A MONSTER THREATENING THE HOMES
OF RESPECTABLE FAMILIES /34
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A BADGER
(AS A VENTRILOQUIST OBSERVING A STRUGGLE IN HIS BELLY) /36
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A NOCTURNAL CREATURE
(ALMOST AS HIMSELF IN A CAPE) /38
- MR. HADLÍZ AS A DANCE OF ELVES (AS AUTUMN DECAY) /40
- In Lieu of an Epilogue, a Lengthy Conversation With Mr. Hadlíz* /43
- I have a great love of water . . . /51
- Not one day ever passes . . . /53
- Postscript, or Definitive Epilogue, as also an Obituary* /54
- About the Author and His Work* /57