

Contents

Introduction by Matthew d'Ancona	1
1 Trusting the Sources	11
2 Looking for Emmaus: How the Traces were Lost and Rediscovered	24
Walking the line: Roads and travellers at the time of Jesus	24
Power games, or: How not to choose a biblical site	29
Stones of contention	39
Rabbis and Bishops: Representing Emmaus	53
Searching with the Crusaders	58
A rescue operation: The Franciscan circle	68
3 People of Action: Jesus and Those Who Saw Him	79
The myth appeal	79
Luke the eyewitness?	92
4 Luke and Josephus – Two Historians of their Time	102
Lucky Luke: The right man in the right place	102
Finding the Messiah: Josephus the religious historian	112
5 An Emperor Joins the Fray: Vespasian's Emmaus	128
A Swiss banker's son	128
Miracles and fate	131
Evidence found and lost: Digging up Vespasian's colony	137
6 Archaeologists at Work: The Finds of Emmaus	149
The standard-bearer and the sceptre head	149
A skeleton and a Jewish-Christian tomb	155
How green was my valley – Emmaus rediscovered	158
Reassembling the jigsaw	166