

Contents

Part I Economics of Happiness and Quality of Life	1
1 Conceptualisations and Measurement	3
1.1 Utility	6
1.2 Welfare	9
1.3 Subjective and Objective Well-Being	10
1.3.1 Subjective Well-Being	10
1.3.2 Objective Well-Being	14
1.4 Psychological Well-Being	15
1.5 Optimal Well-Being	16
1.6 Happiness	17
1.7 Human Development	18
1.8 Quality of Life	19
1.8.1 CASP-19	23
1.8.2 Long-Term Care	23
1.8.3 Health Care	26
1.8.4 Community Quality of Life	31
References	32
2 Theories and Empirical Findings	45
2.1 Comparison Theories	48
2.2 Easterlin Paradox	66
2.3 Set Point, Adaptation Level, and the Hedonic Treadmill	67

2.4	Personality Traits and Genetics	74
2.5	Needs-Based Theories	76
2.6	Inequality and Happiness	79
2.7	Happiness Along the Life Cycle	79
	References	85
3	Happiness and Policy	101
3.1	Gross National Happiness	106
3.2	National Accounts of Well-Being	107
3.2.1	Time-Based National Well-Being Accounts	108
3.3	Happy Life Expectancy or Happy Life Years	109
3.3.1	Inequality of Happiness	111
3.4	Closing Thought	111
	References	116
Part II	Inequality and Poverty	119
4	Inequality	121
4.1	Introduction	121
4.2	Distribution and Moral Theory	123
4.2.1	Value Claims	124
4.2.2	Moral Desert	126
4.2.3	Utilitarianism	128
4.2.4	Libertarianism	128
4.2.5	Contractualism	128
4.2.6	Capabilities	129
4.2.7	Consequentialist and Deontological Approaches	129
4.3	Measurement of Distribution and Inequality	129
4.3.1	Inequality of Whom?	129
4.3.2	Inequality of What?	133
4.3.3	Measures of Inequality	135
4.4	Population Ageing and Distributional Issues	157
4.5	Intergenerational Transmission of Inequality	161
	References	165

5	Poverty, Deprivation, and Social Class	175
5.1	An Embarrassment of Definitional Riches?	177
5.1.1	Equivalisation	179
5.1.2	Absolute Poverty	182
5.1.3	Relative Poverty	187
5.1.4	Multidimensional Approaches	192
5.1.5	Mortality-Adjusted Poverty Rates	202
5.1.6	Subjective Poverty	204
5.1.7	Financial Distress	205
5.1.8	Financial Security	207
5.1.9	Chronic or Persistent Poverty	207
5.2	Theories of Poverty	214
5.2.1	Individualist Approaches	218
5.2.2	Structuralist Approaches	222
5.2.3	Intergenerational Income Elasticity	223
5.2.4	Equal Burden-Sharing	227
5.2.5	The Great Gatsby Curve	229
5.2.6	Anti-poverty Role of Pension Income in Low-Income Developing Countries	230
5.3	Social Class and Later Life	231
	References	240
6	Some Questions of Intergenerational Economics	255
6.1	Intergenerational Transfers	259
6.2	Intergenerational Mobility	261
6.2.1	Multigenerational Mobility	267
6.3	Justice Between Generations	272
6.3.1	Prudential Lifespan	273
6.3.2	Fair Innings	275
6.4	Equity, Solidarity, Conflict, and Ambivalence	275
6.4.1	Generational Equity	276
6.4.2	Generational Interdependence and Solidarity	279
6.4.3	Generational Contract	283
6.4.4	Intergenerational Ambivalence	284
6.5	Indices of Intergenerational Fairness	286
6.5.1	The Intergenerational Fairness Index	286
6.5.2	Intergenerational Justice Index	288
	References	291

7	Ageing, House Prices, and Economic Crises	301
7.1	Introduction	301
7.2	Residential Mobility in Later Life	303
7.2.1	Ageing, Moving, and House Prices	303
7.2.2	Housing-Related Financial Products	307
7.3	Housing and Poverty in Later Life	314
7.3.1	Housing and Risk in Later Life	316
7.4	Housing and Pensions	318
7.4.1	Housing Income and Public Spending on Older People	318
7.4.2	Housing and the Retirement Decision	320
	References	324
	Part III Behavioural Economics and Ageing	335
8	Behavioural Economics and Individual Ageing	337
8.1	Prospect Theory	340
8.2	Framing Effects	346
8.3	Anchoring Effect	349
8.4	Priming	350
8.5	Sunk Cost Effect	350
8.6	Mental Accounting	352
8.7	Myopia	354
8.8	Lack of Willpower	354
8.9	Complexity	356
8.10	Same Findings, Other Approaches	358
	References	360
9	Behavioural Economics and Policy	369
9.1	Libertarian Paternalism	370
9.1.1	Nudge	371
9.2	Constitutionally Constrained Paternalism	373
9.3	Autonomy-Enhancing Paternalism	373
9.4	Asymmetric Paternalism	374
9.5	The Save More Tomorrow™ Programme	375
	References	382

Part IV Political Economy	387
10 Economics and the Political Economy of Ageing	389
10.1 Introduction	389
10.2 Political Economy of Ageing: The Orthodox Economics View	391
10.2.1 Population Ageing and the Median Voter Model	393
10.2.2 The Age of Policy Makers	406
10.2.3 Elderly Power and Fiscal Leakage	408
10.2.4 Interest Group Models	418
References	421
11 Gerontological Views	429
11.1 Political Gerontology	429
11.1.1 Political Participation	430
11.1.2 Age-Related Franchise Limits	432
11.1.3 Realignment, Cognitive Mobilisation, and Regret	434
11.2 Social Gerontology and the Political Economy of Ageing	435
References	439
Part V The Silver Economy	443
12 The Silver Economy	445
12.1 Introduction	445
12.2 The 'Ageing' Consumer	447
12.2.1 Demand-Driven Market Segmentations	448
12.2.2 Other Market Segmentations	452
12.3 The Retirement-Consumption Puzzle	453
12.4 Ageing and the Consumer Society	456
12.4.1 Successful Ageing and the Consumer Society	457
12.4.2 Affluenza	460
References	461

Part VI Postscript	471
References	472
Glossary: Volume IV	473
Index	477
References	481
10.1 Introduction	481
10.2 Political Economy of Aging: The Orthodox	482
10.3 Political Economy of Aging and the Median Voter	487
10.4 Political Economy of Aging and the Median Voter: A	490
Model	493
10.5 The Aging Policy Market: A	496
10.6 Health Insurance and Social Security	498
10.7 Political Economy of Aging: A	501
10.8 Political Economy of Aging: A	504
References	507
11. Gerontological Views	507
11.1 Political Gerontology	507
11.2 Political Gerontology and Economic Gerontology	508
11.3 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	509
11.4 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	510
11.5 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	511
11.6 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	512
11.7 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	513
11.8 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	514
11.9 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	515
11.10 Age-Related Issues for Legislative	516
11.11 Social Gerontology and the Political Economy	517
of Aging	518
References	520
12. The Silver Economy	520
12.1 Introduction	521
12.2 The Aging Economy	522
12.3 Demand for Health Services	523
12.4 Demand for Long-Term Care	524
12.5 Demand for Retirement Savings	525
12.6 Demand for Housing	526
12.7 Demand for Transportation	527
12.8 Demand for Information	528
12.9 Demand for Entertainment	529
12.10 Demand for Education	530
12.11 Demand for Health Services	531
12.12 Demand for Long-Term Care	532
12.13 Demand for Retirement Savings	533
12.14 Demand for Housing	534
12.15 Demand for Transportation	535
12.16 Demand for Information	536
12.17 Demand for Entertainment	537
12.18 Demand for Education	538
References	539