

Essays and Articles

Martin Franc

Socialist Luxury on a Fork / Haute Cuisine in Czechoslovakia, 1948–1969 617

Albena Shkodrova

“Tripe Soup for All Women!” / Transgression of Gender Boundaries as Part of Female Identity in Communist and Contemporary Bulgaria 648

Peter Neville

Anglo-Czech Relations and the Munich Crisis 676

Matej Ivančík

From Democrats to Liberals / The Ambiguous Origins of Liberals and Civil Society in Slovakia after 1989 706

Jiří Hlaváček

The Myth of Defending the Homeland / Combat Preparation in Conscripts' Reflections of Compulsory Military Service (1968–2004) 725

Book Reviews

Adéla Gjuričová

The Many Faces of European Parliamentary Cultures / Revisiting the Latest Research 751

Martin Babička

Beyond Economic Growth in Postwar East-Central Europe? 760

Marián Lóži

Social History of State Security in Postwar Poland, Czechoslovakia and East Germany 766

Zdeněk R. Nešpor
The Quest for Freedom under the Starry Sky 771

Veronika Knotková
Childhood and Youth in Socialist Czechoslovakia 776

Mikuláš Pešta
Journalists as Communism's Fellow Travellers? / A New Look at the International Organization of Journalists 787

Veronika Pehe
Transforming Worlds of Work / Post-1989 Privatization in Poland through the Eyes of Factory Workers 791

Chronicle

Lucie Marková
A Conference Commemorating 100 Years since the Founding of the KSČ 801

Přemysl Vacek
From Where and to Where? / New Impulses at the 7th COHA International Conference on Oral History in Times of Crisis 804

Abstracts in Czech 811