

Contents

Index for tables and figures .....	7
Foreword .....	9
1. Introduction: Service User Involvement – Social Work Projects and Education with a Gap-Mending Approach in Europe .....	13
Emanuela Chiapparini
2. Service User Involvement – Social Work Projects and Education with Gap-Mending Approach in Europe .....	25
Overview of the Theoretical Background and of the Evaluation Emanuela Chiapparini
3. Examples of courses in Europe .....	37
3.1 Sweden: Power, Experiences and Mutual Development. Using The Concept of Gap-Mending in Social Work Education .....	37
Arne Kristiansen and Cecilia Heule
3.2 Norway: Do Gap-Mending Methods Have any Long-Term Effects? Experiences from the Norwegian Course ‘Meeting Face to Face Creates Insights’ .....	54
Liv Altmann, Tove Hasvold and Ole Petter Askheim

3.3	England: Gap-Mending: Developing a New Approach to User and Carer Involvement in Social Work Education .....	69
	Peter Beresford, Helen Casey and John MacDonough
3.4	Denmark: Interdisciplinary Gap-Mending Courses as Part of R&D Projects at the Metropolitan University College .....	88
	Ann Rasmussen and Camusa Hatt
3.5	Germany: Service User Involvement at Esslingen University of Applied Sciences: Background, Concept and Experiences .....	106
	Thomas Heidenreich and Marion Laging
3.6	Switzerland: First Approaches on an Implementation of Courses with a Gap-Mending Approach .....	124
	Véronique Eicher and Emanuela Chiapparini
4.	Conclusion: Empowering Service Users and Innovative Learning Settings with Long-Term Effects .....	133
	Emanuela Chiapparini
	The contributors .....	141