Contents

Introduction.....I
Preface.....II

Part one: Founding elements.....1
I.1. Religious plurality and diversity in secular Europe
Michal Opatrný.....2
I.2. Views of the human being and social work
Rainer Bernhard Gehrig.....10
I.3. Method and interdisciplinarity – ethical and spiritual aspects in social work
Klaus Baumann.....26
I.4. Spirituality – a case for interdisciplinary encounters of theology and social work
Rainer Bernhard Gehrig.....40
I.5. The connection of social work to law, ethics, and religion
Nándor Birher.....59

Part two: Insights.....83
II.1. Social work commitment to clients
Michal Opatrný.....84
II.2. Concepts and theory of spirituality in social work
Michal Opatrný, Rainer Bernhard Gehrig.....93
II.3. Concepts and theory of social ethics in social work
Emanuele Lacca.....115

Part three: Spirituality and Ethics on different social levels.....131
III.1. Spirituality of the clients, of social workers, and ethos of the organizations in a secular age
Klaus Baumann.....132
III.2. Spiritual assessment in social work
Michal Opatrný.....151
III.3. Spirituality and ethical decisions
Emanuele Lacca.....170

III.4. Ecclesial charitable organizations and regulations in the social field
Nándor Birher.....182
III.5. Support for spirituality in structures of helping organizations
Daniela Blank, Karel Šimr.....201
III.6. Leadership in social work and spirituality
Klaus Baumann.....215

Part four: Selected fields of application.....239
IV.1. Depersonalized migrations: towards a hospitable society
Aaron Muñoz Devesa, Mª Dolores Pereñíguez Olmo.....240
IV.2. Spirituality, social work, and female empowerment: an instrument for social change
Mª Dolores Pereñíguez Olmo, Aaron Muñoz Devesa.....254
IV.3. Spirituality and mental health
Francisco José Moya-Faz, Klaus Baumann.....268
IV.4. Youth work and spirituality in Ireland
Brian McManus.....285
IV.5. Spirituality in old age
Věra Suchomelová, Francisco José Moya Faz.....302
IV.6. Religion and spirituality in the process of community development
Michal Opatrný.....318

Abstract.....327