

Contents

Notes on Contributors	page ix
Acknowledgments	xv
1 Introduction: The Human Rights of Non-citizens Molly Land, Kathryn Libal, and Jillian Chambers	1
PART I THE FAILURE OF RIGHTS
2 The Unmaking of Citizens: Shifting Borders of Belonging Kristy A. Belton and Jamie Chai Yun Liew	23
3 Zero Humanity: The Reality of Current US Immigration Policy toward Central American Refugee Children and Their Families Jacqueline Bhabha	35
4 Australia's Extraterritorial Border Control Policies Azadeh Dastyari and Asher Hirsch	53
5 Protection through Revisionism? UNHCR, Statistical Reporting, and the Representation of Stateless People Brad K. Blitz	71
6 Reflections on Anti-immigration Narratives and the Establishment of Global Apartheid Yajaira Ceciliano-Navarro, Tanya Golash-Boza, and Luis Rubén González Márquez	94

PART II BELONGING ACROSS BORDERS

- 7 Imagining New Forms of Belonging: The Futurity of the Stateless 113
Eleni Coundouriotis
- 8 “Either I Close My Eyes or I Don’t”: The Evolution of Rights in Encounters between Sovereign Power and “Rightless” Migrants 126
Daniel Kanstroom
- 9 Do Non-citizens Have a Right to Have Economic Rights?
Locke, Smith, Hayek, and Arendt on Economic Rights 151
Serena Parekh
- 10 Human Rights Are Not Enough: Understanding Noncitizenship and Noncitizens in Their Own Right 167
Tendayi Bloom
- 11 Uncertainty and Educational Mismatch: Schooling and Life
Pursuits in Contexts of Illegalization 183
Susan Bibler Coutin
- 12 Constructing Human Rights: State Power and Migrant Silence 200
Jaya Ramji-Nogales
- Index* 213