

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	v
Table of Cases	ix
Table of Legislation	xi
List of Illustrations	xiii
1. Introduction	1
I. The Immediate Legal Context of Folbigg	5
II. The Core Concerns of This Book	11
2. The Folbigg Case	14
I. The Case against Folbigg	14
II. Judicial Decision-Making in Folbigg	18
3. Unexplained Infant Death: A Shifting Theory of Maternal Culpability	25
I. The Folbigg Children's Deaths	26
II. Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)	28
III. The Emergence of Murder	34
4. Distinguishing Homicide from SIDS	38
I. The 'True Incidence' of Child Homicide	39
II. The Difficulty with Smothering	44
III. Identifying Homicide	52
IV. Exploring the Correlation between Recurrence and Homicide	57
V. Conclusion	67
5. The Scientific Case against Folbigg	72
I. Collective and Individual Approaches to Infant Death	73
II. The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Policy Statement	79
III. The Shifting Use of SIDS	88
6. A Mother Who Would Kill Her Children	96
I. Introduction	96
II. The Dominant Ideology of Motherhood	98
III. The Folbigg Family Unit	104
IV. 'Something I Carried in My Heart': Craig Folbigg's Evidence	117
V. Conclusion	131

Table of Contents

7. Reading Guilt: Kathleen Folbigg's Diaries	134
I. Diaries and Subjectivity	134
II. 'A Machine to Look into Her Mind': The Diary Entries	139
III. Constructing a Murderous Mother	143
IV. The Quest for a Confession	145
V. Re-reading the Diaries: Looking for Interpretive Principles	150
VI. Conclusion: Interpretive Principles for Diary Narratives	154
8. Media Monster	157
I. News Reports of the Folbigg Case	158
II. Reporting the Science	171
III. Reporting Folbigg's Motherhood	181
IV. Conclusion	191
9. Conclusion	193
I. The Folbigg Case	193
II. Comparing Folbigg with its Companion Cases	195
III. Approaching Contentious Medical Evidence	196
IV. The Dominant Ideology of Motherhood	202
V. Newspaper Reporting	205
VI. Conclusion	206
Bibliography	209
Appendix: Chronology of Folbigg Children's Lives and Deaths	223
Index	225