

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	xi

Introduction	1
Emily Michelson, Scott K. Taylor, and Mary Noll Venables

PART I: EXPLORING BOUNDARIES

1	“When Heaven Hovered Close to Earth”: Images and Miracles in Early Modern Spain	15
	Alison Weber
2	An Italian Explains the English Reformation (with God’s Help)	33
	Emily Michelson
3	The Gadarene Demoniac in the English Enlightenment	49
	H.C. Erik Midelfort
4	Miracles: An Inconvenient Truth	67
	David D’Andrea

PART II: LIVING ONE’S FAITH

5	Principalities, Powers, and Philosophia Christi : Erasmus on Spiritual Warfare	83
	Darren Provost
6	Teresa of Avila: Woman with a Mission	101
	Jodi Bilinkoff
7	Responding to God’s Anger: Sigismund Evenius and the Siege of Magdeburg (1631)	113
	Mary Noll Venables

- 8 Telling the Truth about Vocation:
The Death Notices of the Visitandines in Brussels, 1683–1714 129
Ping-Yuan Wang

PART III: THE PHYSICALITY OF SPIRITUALITY

- 9 Pueblo to Señor: Intercession in Sixteenth-Century Spain 149
William A. Christian, Jr
- 10 “In my Father’s house there are many mansions”:
Heinrich Bullinger on Death and the Afterlife 159
Bruce Gordon
- 11 Peyote, Ever Virgin: A Case of Religious Hybridism in Mexico 175
Martin Nesvig
- 12 “A Miserable Captivity” or “Happily Redeemed from Captivity to Liberty”: Tobacco, Addiction, and Early Modern Bodies and Minds 191
Scott K. Taylor
- 13 “He flew”: A Concluding Reflection on the Place of Eternity
and the Supernatural in the Scholarship of Carlos M.N. Eire 205
Ronald K. Rittgers

- Bibliography* 217
- Index* 241