

Table of Contents

Editorial

- Eugen Ehrlich – Founder of Sociology of Law
— p. 393–395

Articles

- Jiří Přibáň: From the Sociology of Law to the Constitutional Pluralism: Eugen Ehrlich and Theory of Societal Constitutionalism
— p. 396–410

- Petr Osina: Eugen Ehrlich – Founder of Legal Sociology
— p. 411–425

- Tomáš Gábriš: Corruption and In-Effectiveness of Law – Conflict of Normative Systems?
— p. 426–442

Gloss

- Ondřej Horák: Customary Law in the Czech Legal System
— p. 443–453

Contributions to the Future of the Field

- Jakub Handrlíčka: Administrative International Law. A Sketch of a Legal Discipline
— p. 454–468

- Magdaléna Svobodová: Replacing Directives with Regulations in European Union Law
— p. 469–472

Mors venit velociter

- The Great Legal Comparatist died (looking back at Prof. Ulrich Drobnig)
— p. 473–475

- For Peter Mankowski
— p. 475–477

- For František Novák
— p. 477–478

Reviews

- Jan Bárta: Pavlíček Václav – Jirásková Věra a kol. Ústavní právo a státověda. I. díl – Obecná státověda. 3. vydání [Constitutional Law and Political Science. Part I – General Political Science. 3rd edition]. 2021
— p. 479–481

- Marek Prudovič: Vyšný Peter – Puchovský Ján. Právne dejiny Latinskej Ameriky: predkoloniálne obdobie [Legal History of Latin America: the Pre-colonial Period]. 2020
— p. 482–486

Abstracts

- p. 487–488