

CONTENTS

- Christiane Brenner / Michal Pullmann / Anja Tippner: After Utopia:
Introductory Remarks on Normalization in Czechoslovakia.* 1

I. Normality and Normalization

- Thomas Lindenberger: Normalization between Experience, Expectation, and Ostalgie: Observations on the East German Case.* 17

- Martin Schulze Wessel: "Calm for Work" or Neo-Stalinism: The Genesis of the Normalization in the Party Debates between 1968 and 1970. . .* 37

II. Making Normalization: Legitimation, Policies, and Attitudes

- Stefan Lehr: Communication and Collective Decision-Making in the Presidium of the KSCĚ Central Committee (1971–1989)* 57

- Tomáš Vilímek: The Functions and Characteristic Attributes of Elections
during Normalization in Czechoslovakia* 89

- Jakub Rákosník: The Social Policy of Czechoslovak Normalization* 119

- Filip Keller: The Making of the Czechoslovak Socialist Working Class . .* 143

- Adam Havlík: "Wollen Sie Geld wechseln?" Veksláci as Agents of the Czechoslovak Black Market* 165

III. Living the Normalization: Strategies, Life-Styles, and Cultural Representation

- Jaroslav Šebek: Disintegration of the Prague Spring Impulses and Interference in the Clergy in the Early Years of Normalization, 1969–1974* 185

- Agáta Šústová Drélová: Catholicism and National Communism in Late
Socialist Slovakia* 211

Martin Franc: A White Mercedes in Front of a Modern Villa: A Luxury Lifestyle in Czechoslovakia in the Era of Normalization and Its Image in Popular Culture	243
Peter Hallama: “Are we Afraid of Fathers in the Delivery Room?” Experiments in Obstetrics in Late Socialist Czechoslovakia	267
Marek Nekula: Jan Palach and His Public	293
Libuše Heczková / Kateřina Svatoňová: Laterna Magika during the Period of Normalization: A Case of Cultural Dislocation and Defence	315
 IV. Remembering Normalization: The After-Life of a Contested Era
Anna Artwińska: The Discrete Charm of Times Past: Michal Viewegh’s Family Saga Báječná léta pod psa (1992)	333
Marketa Spiritova: The Normalization Era in Popular Culture of Memory, Using the Example of Online Discussions on the Czech Television Programme Retro	347
Jan Mervart: Czech Research on Normalization	365
 Epilogue
Michal Hvorecký: Four Slovak Lives – Dissidents under Normalization	389
 List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	399
 Contributors	405