

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Introduction | 7 |
| (1) Opening interview: Fundamental social change | 13 |
| Marek Hrubec, Martin Brabec, Markéta Minářová, Jan Rovenský | |
| (2) The main arguments: To each according to her or his basic needs | 29 |
| Marek Hrubec and Martin Brabec | |
| Basic definition | 30 |
| Employment and unemployment as liberation..... | 32 |
| Recognition of care | 34 |
| Transfer of power in employment..... | 36 |
| Poverty elimination and the welfare state | 38 |
| Transnational dimensions | 39 |
| Financing a basic income..... | 41 |
| Gradual introduction of basic income | 43 |
| Towards a fundamental social change | 45 |
| (3) The experiments in the world: All over the planet | 47 |
| Marek Hrubec, Martin Brabec, Markéta Minářová | |
| Europe..... | 50 |
| The Netherlands, Finland, Ireland, Germany, Scotland | |
| The Americas..... | 65 |
| Brazil, Alaska, Canada, the USA | |
| Africa..... | 87 |
| Kenya, Namibia, South Africa, Uganda | |
| Asia | 96 |
| India, Iran, Macao | |
| The global level: The United Nations | 103 |

(4) The history: The pioneers of basic income 107

Markéta Minářová

Thomas More 109

Ioannes Lodovicus Vives 113

Thomas Paine 118

Bertrand Russell 121

Martin Luther King 124

References 127

Notes on authors. 135