

Contents

Introduction 1

- 1 | “Contrary to the Nature of the English”: The Failure of Beer and Wine 5
 - 2 | “That Damn’d Devil’s Piss”: The Rise of Rum 20
 - 3 | Southern Drinking on the Eve of the Revolution 38
 - 4 | Three Times Around the Horn: Madeira Emerges 50
 - 5 | Revolutionary Spirits: An Interlude 60
 - 6 | Rye Whiskey and Corn Liquor 65
 - 7 | The Cocktail in Antebellum New Orleans 79
 - 8 | The Mint Julep 90
 - 9 | Madeira and the Creation of Connoisseurship 104
 - 10 | The Whiskey Boom 111
 - 11 | The Civil War 126
 - 12 | By the Light of the Moon: The Rise of Illegal Whiskey Distilling During the Reconstruction Era 142
 - 13 | The Golden Age of Whiskey 160
 - 14 | The Golden Age of the Southern Cocktail 176
 - 15 | Southern Punch: “The Killer of Time, the Destroyer of Bitter Memory, the Mortal Enemy of Despair” 190
 - 16 | Southern Suds: The South Masters Brewing 200
 - 17 | The South and Temperance 212
 - 18 | National Prohibition 236
 - 19 | Four Roses and Rebel Yell: Rebounding from Prohibition 252
 - 20 | King Pappy: The Decline and Rebirth of Southern Drinking 275
- Acknowledgments 290
- Bibliography 291
- Image Sources and Credits 302
- About the Author 303
- Index 304