So is love really all around us? Can these people find it? Is there enough magic in the world for everyone, even at Christmas?

The film Love Actually (2003) stars Hugh Grant as the Prime Minister, Alan Rickman as Harty, Emma Thompson as Karen, Colin Firth as Jamie, Liam Neeson as Daniel and many other famous British actors, as well as the American actress Laura Linney as Sarah. The film was written by Richard Curtis, who has also worked on other very successful films, like Bridget Jones's Diary (2001), Notting Hill (1999), Not One Word (1997) and Few Words and a Funeral (1994). It was made mostly in London, and some of the scenes were filmed in famous places. These include the London Eye, the National Gallery, Trafalgar Square, Tate Modern and
