

Introduction	7
1. Theory and practice	17
1.1. Typology and terminology	19
1.2. The sources	39
1.2.1. An example: Sources for the legation of Angelo Pecchinoli	49
2. Rights and powers	55
2.1. The authority of the legates	55
2.1.1. Judicial authority	63
2.1.2. Benefices and papal reserved powers	67
2.1.3. Dispensations	68
2.2. Faculties	69
2.2.1. Benefices	76
2.2.2. Indulgences and other graces	77
2.2.3. Apostolic Penitentiary	79
2.2.4. Specific cases	87
2.3. Geographical and temporal limits of the legation	90
3. Modus operandi	103
3.1. Ceremonial	103
3.1.1. Rome	105
3.1.2. Outside Rome	112
3.2. On the road	124
3.2.1. Travelling	125
3.2.2. The retinue	129
3.3. Financing a legation	135
3.3.1. Procuration	135
3.3.2. Central payments	137
3.3.3. The salary of the legate	139
3.3.4. The salary of the nuncio	144
3.3.5. Further resources	146

4. Politics and diplomacy	149
4.1. Papal legates and the crusades	150
4.1.1. Papal legates and the Hussite crusade	151
4.1.2. The Ottoman crusades	158
4.2. Angeli Pacis	167
4.2.1. International and internal conflicts	169
4.2.2. Communication	186
4.3. Church politics and policy	188
4.3.1. Outside Rome	189
4.3.2. Rome	199
4.4. Acceptance of legates	208
Concluding remarks	213
Bibliography	217
Index	247

