

CONTENTS

---

Preface	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Table of cases	xv
Table of Commission decisions	lv
Table of UK statutes	lvii
Table of European Community Treaties	lviii
Table of European Community secondary legislation	lxii
PART ONE SOURCES, NATURE AND EFFECT OF EC LAW	1
1 Historical background to the EC, the EC Treaty,     the institutions of the Community, Acts of the institutions	3
Scope of EC Treaty — The institutions of the EC — Parliament (Articles 137–44 as amended) — Council (Articles 145–54) — Commission (Articles 155–63 as amended) — Budgetary procedures — Court of Justice (Articles 164–8) — Court of Auditors — Economic and Social Committee (Articles 193–8) — Committee of the Regions — Legislative acts — Sources of EC law — Further reading
2 Principles of direct applicability and direct effects:     Indirect effects: State liability under Francovich	26
Treaty Articles — Regulations — Directives — The Von Colson principle: indirect effects — Emmott v Minister for Social Welfare — Francovich : a radical alternative — Decisions — Recommendations and opinions — International agreements to which the EC is a party — Conclusions — Further reading

3 Principle of supremacy of EC law	47
The problem of priorities — The Court of Justice's contribution — The member States' response — Further reading
4 General principles of law	61
Reasons for, and sources of, general principles of law — Proportionality — Equality — Certainty — Procedural rights — Rights to protection against self-incrimination — Subsidiarity — Conclusions — Further reading
PART TWO ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL LAW OF THE EC: ASPECTS OF THE INTERNAL MARKET	77
Section A Free movement of goods	79
5 Introduction	79
6 Customs union	82
Common customs tariff — Prohibition between member States of customs duties on imports and exports and of all charges of equivalent effect
7 Prohibition of discriminatory taxation (Article 95)	88
'Similar' products — Taxation affording indirect protection to domestic products — Harmonisation of indirect taxation
8 Elimination of quantitative restrictions on imports and exports and all measures having equivalent effect (Articles 30–4)	93
Prohibition, as between member States, of quantitative restrictions on IMPORTS and of all measures having equivalent effect (Article 30) — Indistinctly applicable measures: the Cassis de Dijon test — Indistinctly applicable measures: a change of direction? — Prohibition, as between member States, of quantitative restrictions on EXPORTS and of all measures having equivalent effect (Article 34) — Further reading
9 Derogation from Articles 30–4 (Articles 36, 100A(4), 103, 108, 109, 115 and 223)	108
Public morality — Public policy — Public security — Protection of the health and life of humans, animals and plants — Protection of national treasures possessing artistic, historic or archaeological value — Protection of industrial and commercial property — Articles 30 and 36 and the common organisation of the market: Article 100A(4) — Derogation provisions other than Article 36 — Further reading
10 State monopolies of a commercial character (Article 37)	122
11 Restrictions on State aids (Articles 92–4)	124
Meaning of State aids — Policy of the Commission — Relationship between State aids and other provisions of the Treaty — Enforcement by individuals — Further reading

Section B Competition policy	133
12 Introduction	133
The theory of competition — Enforcement of EC competition law — Further reading
13 Article 85	139
Article 85: the general scheme — Article 85(1): elements of an infringement — Agreements between undertakings, decisions by associations of undertakings and concerted practices — Public authorities — Field of application of Article 85(1) — ‘Which may affect trade between member States’ — ‘Which have as their object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition within the common market’ — The de minimis principle — Agreements capable of preventing, restricting or distorting competition — The rule of reason — Article 85(3): exemption — Block exemptions — Comfort letters — Further reading
14 Article 86	166
The prohibition — Undertakings — The principle of dominance — The relevant product market (RPM) — Dominance in fact — The relevant geographical market — The temporal market — Abuse — Exploitative abuses — Anti-competitive abuse — The Merger Regulation — The abuse must affect trade between member States — Negative clearance and exemption — Further reading
15 Enforcement of Articles 85 and 86: powers and procedures	183
Powers and duties of the Commission — Confidentiality — Sanctions — Concentrations — The role of national courts — Conflict between national and Community competition law — The role of individuals — Further reading
16 Articles 85 and 86 and industrial property rights	198
Section C Free movement of persons	201
17 Introduction: an outline of EC social policy	201
The social dimension: The move towards a ‘People’s Europe’ — Further reading
18 Free movement of workers	208
Personal scope — Material scope — ‘Employment in the public service’ (Article 48(4)) — Derogation on grounds of public policy, public security or public health (Article 48(3)) — Further reading
19 Freedom of establishment; freedom to provide services; freedom to receive services	231
Establishment — Services — Limitations on the freedoms — Professional qualifications — A new approach — Professional rules of conduct — A new approach — Other barriers to freedom — Activities connected with the exercise of official authority — Freedom to provide services and the exercise of industrial property rights — Freedom to receive services — Education: vocational training — Scholarships and grants — Scope of equality principle — Harmonisation of company law — Further reading

20 Free movement of persons: limitation on grounds of public policy, public security or public health (Directive 64/221) 254

Public policy, public security, public health — Personal conduct — Procedural rights — Further reading

21 Social security 262

Personal scope — Principles — Material scope — Social assistance — Operation of the system — Applicable law: lex laboris — Principle of apportionment — Payment of benefits to persons resident outside the competent State: special provisions — A practical exercise — Further reading

22 Sex discrimination 278

Introduction — Equal pay for equal work: Article 119 — Equal pay — Equal work — Discrimination — Objective justification — Equal pay for work of equal value (Directive 75/117) — Principle of equal treatment for men and women (Directive 76/207) — Derogation from the equal treatment principle (Article 2(2), (3) and (4)) — Pregnancy — Direct effects of Directive 76/207 — Principle of equal treatment in matters of social security (Directive 79/7) — Principle of equal treatment in occupational pension schemes (Directive 86/378) — Equal treatment in self-employment (Directive 86/613) — Remedies — Further reading

PART THREE 311
REMEDIES AND ENFORCEMENT OF EC LAW

23 Introduction 313

Section A Action before national courts 319

24 The preliminary rulings procedure (Article 177) 319

Introduction — The procedure — Jurisdiction of the Court of Justice — Limitations on the Court's jurisdiction — Jurisdiction of national courts — Discretionary or 'permissive' jurisdiction: the effect of national precedent — When will a decision be necessary? — Acte clair — Exercise of discretion — Mandatory jurisdiction (Article 177(3)) — Effect of a ruling — Interim measures — Conclusions — Further reading

Section B Action before the Court of Justice against member States 342

25 Enforcement actions (Articles 169 and 170, 93(2), 100A(4) and 225) 342

Action by the Commission (Article 169) — Failure to fulfil an obligation — Procedure — Defences — Effects of a ruling — New routes to enforcement —

Action by member States (Article 170) — Special enforcement procedures: State aids (Article 93(2)), breach of Article 100A(4) procedures (Article 100A(4), para. 3) and measures to prevent serious internal disturbances (Article 225) — Further reading

Section C Action before the Court of Justice against Community institutions 353

26 Judicial review: introduction 353

27 Direct action for annulment (Article 173) 355

Reviewable acts — Locus standi; who may bring an action? — Time-limits — The merits — Further reading

28 Action for failure to act (Article 175) 373

Reviewable omissions — Locus standi — Procedure — Consequences of a successful action — Further reading

29 Indirect review before the Court of Justice (Article 184) 383

Proceedings in which Article 184 may be invoked — Reviewable acts — Locus standi — Grounds of review — Consequences of a successful challenge — Further reading

30 Community liability in tort, action for damages 388
(Articles 178 and 215(2))

Locus standi — Elements of non-contractual liability — Wrongful acts or omissions — Liability for wrongful acts having legal effect — The Schöppenstedt formula — Individual acts — Damage — Causation — Relevance of principles of community liability to questions of State liability under Francovich — Concurrent liability — Relationship between Article 215(2) and other remedies — Further reading

Bibliography 403

Index 408