

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments ix

CHAPTER I. Introduction: Autochthony—the Flip Side of Globalization? I

A Primordial yet Global Form of Belonging? 2

Autochthony's Genealogy: Some Elements 6

Autochthony Now: Globalization and the Neoliberal Turn 16

Autochthony and the Tenacity of the Nation-State 21

Historical Construction, Political Manipulation and Emotional Power 26

Approach: From Identity to Subjectivation and Aesthetics 31

Chapter Overview 35

CHAPTER 2. Cameroon: Autochthony, Democratization, and New Struggles over Citizenship 39

Belonging to a Nonexistent Province 41

Elite Associations and Autochthony: Different Degrees of Citizenship? 43

The "Sea People" Protected by the New Constitution 49

Debates in the Cameroonian Press 53

Autochthony's "Naturalness": The Funeral as a Final Test for Belonging 55

A Tortuous History 57

An Empty Discourse with Segmentary Implications 63

Conclusion 64

- CHAPTER 3. Cameroon: Decentralization and Belonging 66
The East and the New Importance of the Forest 69
The New Forest Law 72
Participation in Practice 74
The Elusive Community 76
The Community as Stakeholder: Belonging and Exclusion 81
Village or Grande Famille? 83
The Halfhearted Belonging of the External Elites 86
Discovering Allogènes at Ever Closer Range 89
Conclusion 94
- CHAPTER 4. African Trajectories 97
Ivory Coast: Identification and Exclusion 98
Elsewhere in Africa 117
“Pygmy” Predicaments: Can Only Citizens Qualify as Autochthons? 124
- CHAPTER 5. Autochthony in Europe: The Dutch Turn 130
The Dutch Switch: From Multiculturalism to Cultural Integration 134
Overview: How the Netherlands Became an “Immigration Country” 137
National Consensus and Its History—the Dutch Way 139
Alternative Solutions 142
A More Forceful Integration 144
Allochtonen: A New Term on the Dutch Scene 147
Elusive Autochthony 153
History and Culture 155
Comparisons 162

CHAPTER 6. Cameroon: Nation-Building and Autochthony as Processes of Subjectivation	169
Nation-Building as an Everyday Reality	172
Rituals of Belonging: The Funeral at Home as a Celebration of Autochthony	190
CHAPTER 7. Epilogue: Can the Land Lie? Autochthony's Uncertainties in Africa and Europe	212
Varying Patterns of Nation-Building in Africa and Their Implications	213
Autochthony and the Search for Ritual in Europe	218

Notes 225

Bibliography 263

Index 279