

Contents

Foreword
Philippa Russell	v
Notes on authors	viii
Introduction	xii
1. Introduction to the children and their educational frameworks
Alison Closs	1
2. 'I didn't ask to have this': first-person accounts of young people
Kathryn Hegarty, Tanya Lyke, Richard Docherty and Sinead Douglas	15
3. The psychological impact of chronic illness on children's development
Christine Eiser	27
4. Researching the education of children with medical conditions: reflections on two projects
Angela Bolton, Alison Closs and Claire Norris	39
5. Parents' expectations and experiences of their children's education
Sandra Mason, Amanda and Tony O'Sullivan, and Mairi Ann Cullen	51
6. The role and achievements of voluntary organisations supporting education
Kirsteen Tait and Helen Hart	65
7. Health services: supporting children, families and schools
Patricia Jackson	77
8. Issues for the effectiveness of children's school education
Alison Closs	93
9. 'There were more than I thought': reflections on a medical audit and its implications for a primary school
Joy McFarlane	107

10.	'People took a lot for granted': a secondary school's support for pupils with chronic illness and other medical conditions Ronnie Hassard	119
11.	Towards quality educational services for children out of school for reasons of health Peter Feeley and Carolyn Skilling	131
12.	More like a friend: case studies of working in wards and at home with children with a poor prognosis Ann Burnett	145
13.	Schools and death Oliver Leaman	155
14.	Privileged witnesses? Siblings' views Bernadette Kelly and Jeremy Nelson	169
15.	Resources to support education staff working with children with medical conditions Alison Closs	179
	References	195
	Index	205