

Contents

General Introduction to the Volumes	ix
Introduction to the Literature Review Volume	xiii
Orientations	1
Why Review the Literature?	1
Types and Characteristics of Literature Reviews	2
Check Your Literature Review Knowledge	5
Scholars before Researchers	8
Typical Advisor Critiques of Literature Reviews	9
How Can Order Be Imposed on the Literature?	12
Choosing Areas to Include in the Review	21
Getting Started on the Literature Review	23
Describing the Selection Criteria for Literature in the Review	25
Metadiscourse	38
Citation Patterns	43
Integral and Non-Integral Citations	45
Citation Verb Tense and Aspect	47
Reporting Verbs	54
Ambiguity in Citations	56
Drafting, Redrafting, and Redrafting Again	60
Taking a Stance toward the Literature	71
Constructing an Original Discussion of Previous Work:
Using Your Own Words	77
Some Strategies for Paraphrasing	82
Careful Use of Synonyms	85
Summarizing	86
Criteria for Evaluating Literature Reviews	93
Some Final Thoughts to Consider	95
References	97