Contents

| List of Plates | |
|--|-------------|
| | |
| | |
| | |
| Acknowledgements Introduction | : |
| Treative Commons Fillipunon CC by the third and the common to the common | |
| 1 Farly I ife and Formative Veare | 13 |
| 1 Early Life and Formative Years 2 The Flanders Compaign | 22 |
| 2 The West Indian | 37 |
| The West Indies | 53 |
| 4 India 5 Fount | 58 |
| 5 Egypt 6 Pittor Founds | 73 |
| 6 Bitter Feuds 7 Deputy Inspector of Hospitals | |
| 7 Deputy Inspector of Hospitals | 94 |
| 8 Walcheren 9 Family Connections | 104 |
| 7 Failing Connections | moolleW) |
| 10 The Peninsular Campaign: Sieges, Triumph & Retreat | 126 |
| 11 The Peninsular Campaign: Victory 12 Director General Army Medical Services | 138 |
| 12 Director General Army Medical Services 13 McGrigor's Closing Years | 149 |
| | 155 |
| 14 James McGrigor's Enduring Legacy | 133 |
| Appendices | |
| Appendices I All causes of death in hospitals (regimental & general) in Peninsular Campaign | |
| | 160 |
| during years 1812–1814 II. Nomen eleture of Discosoo soon by McCrigor in the Denincular Compaign | 162 |
| II Nomenclature of Diseases seen by McGrigor in the Peninsular Campaign | 102 |
| Dibliography | |
| Bibliography Index | |
| | Гпівто (171 |
| | |
| | |

A History of the Army Medical Department, vol. I, p.505.)

tars 1812 and 1813. (Source: Cantlie, A History of the Army Medical admissions in 1812 and 1813 to regimental and general hospital at 1811.