

CONTENTS

- 1 Introduction 1
Hozumi Yatsuka, 1860–1912; Japan's Cultural Identity
- 2 Hozumi Yatsuka: The Early Years 13
Tokyo University, 1879–1884; Hozumi Yatsuka and the Debate on Sovereignty of 1882
- 3 The German Background 31
German Theories of the State: Savigny and the Historical Method; Laband's Method: Legal Positivism; Laband's Theory: The Legal Personality of the State; The State as Legal Person: Gierke's Critique
- 4 Hozumi's General Theory: The State 56
The State Defined; Kokutai and Seitai; Ancestor Worship; Christianity and the Pre-Christian West; The State and the Individual
- 5 Law, Constitutions, and Constitutionalism 84
Law Defined; The Social Function of Law; Constitutions; Constitutionalism; Parliamentary Seitai and Imperial Seitai

JAPANESE TRADITION
AND WESTERN LAW

6	The Meiji Constitution	105
	Subject of Rule: The Emperor; The Divided Powers; The Executive Power; The Legislative Power; The Judicial Prerogative; Meiji Constitutionalism: Party Politics and Suffrage; Hozumi's Constitutionalism: A Critique; Hozumi Yatsuka and the Western Legal Tradition
7	Japanese Tradition	148
	Confucianism and Neo-Confucianism; Japanese Neo-Confucianism; Mitogaku and Kokugaku
8	Hozumi Yatsuka and Japanese Tradition	176
	Hozumi Yatsuka, Neotraditionalist; Japanese Tradition and Western Law
	Notes	197
	Bibliography	221
	Glossary	235
	Index	237