

Contents

List of Illustrations	page ix
List of Boxes	xii
Preface	xv
1 Where Do Children Come from?	1
The Anthropologist's Veto	1
When Did Childhood Begin?	5
What's So Special about Human Childhood?	6
The Challenges of Studying Children in Culture	9
Outline of the Volume	12
2 The Value of Children	27
Introduction	27
Expensive Little Cherubs	28
Calculating the Costs	30
Delayed Personhood	35
Children as Chattel	48
Milk Debt	52
Child Adoption and Circulation	54
Child Labor	59
Children in Paradise	63
The Priceless Child	67
3 To Make a Child	74
Introduction	74
One Big, Unhappy Family	77
The Mother's Perspective	82
Pregnancy and Childbirth	84
Gene Roulette	90
Pink Ribbons or Blue, Many or Few?	92
Promoting Survival	97
Child Illness and Folk Medicine	101
Accounting for Death	106
The Extremes of High and Low Fertility	108

4	It Takes a Village	115
	Introduction	115
	Infant Care	117
	Alloparents as Mother's Helpers	122
	Going to Grandma's Place	128
	Absentee Fathers	131
	The End of Infancy	137
	Her Brother's Keeper	141
	Playing on the Mother Ground	145
	Childcare in Complex Society	146
	The Birth of Intensive Parenting	149
	The "Great" Transition	150
	Parenting in a Neontocracy	152
5	Making Sense	161
	Introduction	161
	The Wisdom of Babies	163
	Children as Spectators	165
	Learning in the Environment	169
	Exploration and Play with Objects/Tools	171
	It's Only Make-Believe	175
	Learning from Peers	179
	Fitting in to the Family Circle	181
	The Importance of Good Manners	187
	Socializing Aggression	193
	Controlling Children's Behavior: Obedience versus Freedom	196
	The Age of Reason	202
	Socializing Gender	206
	Teaching and Cultural Transmission	210
6	Of Marbles and Morals	215
	Introduction	215
	Marbles	216
	The Utility of Toys	219
	Blowing off Steam	223
	Constructing the Dominance Hierarchy	225
	Gamesmanship	227
	The Importance of the Playgroup	230
	The Universality of Make-Believe	233
	The Moral Lessons in Folklore	237
	How the Cultural Ethos Shapes Children's Play	240

Suppression of Play	244
Adult Contributions to Children's Play	248
7 The Chore Curriculum	255
Introduction	255
Work, Gender, and Identity	258
The Play Stage	263
Running Errands	268
Children Rebuffed or Redirected	271
Progress in the Chore Curriculum	275
Children as a Reserve Labor Force	288
Learning Crafts: Pottery, Weaving, Stone Tool Making	293
Apprenticeship	302
8 Living in Limbo	308
Introduction	308
Middle Childhood: The Path to Respect	310
Hangin'	313
Creating Warriors	317
Sexuality	322
Becoming a Woman	326
Marriage Arrangements	330
Adolescence and Social Change in Traditional Societies	333
9 Taming the Autonomous Learner	339
The Autonomous Learner	339
The Rise of Schooling: First the Stick, Then the Carrot	345
Village Schools	350
Schooling and Investment	360
Parents as Teachers	367
An Educated Woman	373
The Schooled Mind	376
10 Elastic Childhood	381
Introduction	381
Childhood Curtailed	382
Children as Breadwinners	384
Children without Parents	389
Street Culture	393
Children's Agency and the Plight of Children in Poverty	399
Overprotection	402
What Have We Learned?	408

References	419
Author Index	546
Topic Index	554
Society Index	558
Introduction	1
Work, Gender, and Identity	821
The Play Stage	131
Running Errands	137
Children Rebuffed or Redirected	141
Progress in the Chore Curriculum	141
Children as a Reserve Labor Force	141
Learning Crafts: Pottery, Weaving, Stone Tool Making	141
Apprenticeship	151
Parenting in a Neotocracy	151
Living in Limbo	151
Introduction	151
Middle Childhood: The Path to Respect	151
Mantra	151
Creating Warriors	151
Sexuality	151
Becoming a Woman	151
Marriage Arrangements	151
Adolescence and Social Change in Traditional Societies	151
From the Family Circle	151
Taming the Autonomous Learner	151
The Autonomous Learner	151
The Rise of Schooling: How the State Took the Sack	151
Village Schools	151
Schooling and Investment	151
Parents as Teachers	151
An Educated Woman	151
The Schooled Mind	151
Elastic Childhood	151
Introduction	151
Childhood Curtailed	151
Children as Breadwinners	151
Children without Parents	151
Sweet Culture	151
Children's Agency and the Right of Children to Play	151
Overprotection	151
What Have We Learned? Play's Cultural Ethos Shapes Children's Play	151