

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|----|
| Introduction | 11 |
| CHAPTER 1 | 27 |
| Birth and parentage of Sir James McGrigor – His success at Aberdeen Grammar School – Graduates from Marischal College – Studies the medical profession – Proceeds to Edinburgh – Elected member of the Medical and Chirurgical Society – Departure for London – Determines upon entering the army | |
| CHAPTER 2 | 32 |
| Purchases surgeoncy in the 88th Regiment (or Connaught Rangers) – Joins at Chatham – Duels – Ordered to Jersey – Typhus fever – Sails for Ostend – Fire on board ship – Siege of Bergen op Zoom – The Duke of York – Siege of Nijmegen – Retreat – Sufferings of the army – Second outbreak of typhus – Return to England | |
| CHAPTER 3 | 49 |
| The Connaught Rangers at Norwich – French revolutionary sympathies – Appointed superintendent surgeon of the hospitals – Connaught Rangers at Chelmsford – At Southampton – First interview with Colonel Beresford – Altercation – Reconciliation – Expedition to the West Indies – Disasters to Admiral Christian's fleet – Arrival at Barbados – Insurrection at Grenada – Shipwrecked – Capture of Fort in Grenada – Personal illness – Re-capture of Grenada – Executions – Yellow fever | |
| CHAPTER 4 | 65 |
| Orders to return to England – Escapade of Dr Bruce – Scarcity of provisions – Tempestuous weather – Captain Vandeleur takes command of the ship – Reaches Cork – Quarantine at Portsmouth | |

CHAPTER 5

73

Short stay in London – Rencontre with Captain Maconochie – Headquarters of the 88th at Halifax, Yorkshire – Visits Scotland – Ordered to Portsmouth – Petersfield – French captain of the Tribune – Mutiny of the fleet

CHAPTER 6

79

Regiment embarks for India – Contrast of the military medical officers at the time and subsequently – Bombay – Ceylon – Disease of the Guinea-worm – Counter-orders to the Red Sea

CHAPTER 7

88

Departure from India for the Red Sea – Sir David Baird and the Hon. Colonel Wellesley – Guinea-worm disease – Cosseir – The desert – Rosetta – Grand Cairo – Superintendence of the medical staff of the Indian army – The plague

CHAPTER 8

96

Orders to return from Egypt to India – Re-crosses the desert – Jealous ferocity of Mussulmen towards women and abhorrence of Christians in general – Project of visiting the Holy Land defeated – Perilous fording of the Red Sea – Renewed appearance of the plague – Quarantine at Butcher's Island, off Bombay – Appointment by the East India Company – Orders for return to England – Voyage – Successful stratagem against privateers – Arrival at Bantry Bay – London

CHAPTER 9

111

Publication of Medical Sketch of the Expedition to Egypt from India – Joins the Connaught Rangers at Helsham on their return from the Mediterranean – Appointed to the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards Blue – Takes leave of the Connaught Rangers – Popularity of a medical officer in a regiment – Its conditions – Outbreak of gangrene – Orders for Windsor – Anecdotes of his late Majesty George III

CHAPTER 10

120

Promotion to Head of Medical Board in India – Political Partisanship – Declines Promotion – Strange incident respecting the loss of Mrs Dundas – Gazetted as Deputy Inspector of Hospitals – Mr Francis

Knight, his character, &c. – Office of Inspector-General – Regimental and general hospitals – Improvement in the army medical officers – Views on army medical reform – Deputy Inspector of Northern District – Headquarters at Beverley, Yorkshire – Introduces many reforms in the military hospitals – Treatment of typhus fever and ulcerated legs – Sir Everard Home, and Drs Currie, Jackson and Baynton – Excitement in York on the death of a soldier from typhus – Bad feeling in York against the government – Promotion from York to the South-West District – Low state of the army medical profession – Comparative advantages of the civil and military practitioner – Progress in the army medical profession during the last forty years – Temptation of the young medical officer at mess – Studious habits

CHAPTER 11

139

Appointed Inspector at Portsmouth in addition to the South-Western District – Duke of Cumberland, Commander-in-Chief of the South-Western District – Inspectorial duties at Portsmouth – Sphere of inspection increased with part of Sussex – Sir George Prevost – General Whetham – Treatment of hydrothorax – Superintendence of transports – Sick and wounded from Corunna – Arrival of Sir David Baird: his wounds – Haslar Hospital & character of its governor – Spread of disease: a mixture of typhus and pneumonia – The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Clarence at Portsmouth

CHAPTER 12

151

Appointment to the Head of the Medical Staff of the Portuguese army cancelled – Commissioned to succeed Sir John Webb at Walcheren – Shipwreck of the Venerable off Flushing – Reception by Sir Eyre Coote – Appalling disease and mortality at Walcheren – Sad want of Peruvian bark – Fortunate relief by an American adventurer – Disordered condition of the purveying department – Increased sickness in the army and consequent recall of it to England – Sir Eyre Coote relieved in command by Sir George Don – Conflagration at Flushing – Sail homeward – Terrible confusion among the transports – Arrival in England – Illness at Canterbury – Excitement in Parliament respecting the Walcheren Expedition – Summoned to the Bar of the House of Commons – Scenes in the Speaker's Chamber – Sir Richard Strachan – Examination before the Bar of the House of Commons – Evidence

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 13 | 164 |
| Marriage – Proceeds to the Peninsula | |
| CHAPTER 14 | 178 |
| The siege and capture of Badajoz | |
| CHAPTER 15 | 188 |
| Colonel Colquhoun Grant | |
| CHAPTER 16 | 199 |
| Retreat to Portugal | |
| CHAPTER 17 | 213 |
| The army in winter quarters at Freineda | |
| CHAPTER 18 | 227 |
| Battles of Vittoria and Toulouse | |
| CHAPTER 19 | 234 |
| Visit to Montpellier | |
| CHAPTER 20 | 240 |
| Return through France to England | |
| CHAPTER 21 | 246 |
| Appointed Director-General | |
| Conclusion | 252 |
| Appendices | 269 |
| Bibliography | 319 |