

Contents

|   |      |
|---|------|
| List of Illustrations   | viii |
| List of Contributors  | x    |
| Acknowledgements  | xxi  |
| Foreword Helen M. Gunter   | xxii |
| Overview of the Editorial Process   | xxv  |
| Introduction Victoria Showunmi and Pontso Moorosi  | 1    |
| Part I: Understanding Gender and Educational Leadership Victoria Showunmi  | 9    |
| 1 Reflections on the Social Relations of Gender and Educational Leadership and Practice: The Case of Australia Jill Blackmore  | 13   |
| 2 Reframing Constructive Spaces for Women in Educational Leadership: A Transatlantic Study Maureen K. Porter and Claudia Fahrenwald  | 24   |
| 3 Women Publishing on South African Educational Leadership Research: A Gender(ed) Topographical Literature Analysis Janine Joan Le Roux and Juliet Perumal                           | 38   |
| 4 Gender, Leadership and Positional Power Saeeda Shah  | 56   |
| 5 The Soul Work of a Womanist Ethical Critical Servant Leader: An Authentic and Delicate Balance Judy A. Alston  | 66   |
| Part II: Intersectionality and Social Justice Victoria Showunmi  | 75   |
| 6 Social In/justice and Double Marginality in Educational Leadership: Trajectories of Three Female School Principals from the Middle East Khalid Arar, Deniz Örücü and Julia Mahfouz | 79   |
| 7 Gender, Educational Leadership and Social Justice: An Intersectional Lens Jane Wilkinson and Katrina MacDonald   | 90   |
| 8 Intersectionality and Social Justice: Knowing Intersectional Discrimination When You Feel It Kay Fuller  | 101  |
| 9 Disrupting Narratives of Women in Educational Leadership Rosemary Campbell-Stephens MBE  | 114  |
| 10 Developing Leadership Acts: A Way to Reclaim Power Which Can Harness Actions and Resources Sigal Oppenheim-Shachar  | 127  |

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 11 | Black Women Headteachers of the Windrush Generation Lauri Johnson   | 138 |
| 12 | Intersectionality or Double Difference: Learning and Leading with Deaf Black Women in Brazil Laudiléa Aparecida de Lourdes Laudino and Rosangela Malachias                  | 151 |
|    | Part III: Gender and Women's Ways of Leading Charol Shakeshaft  | 161 |
| 13 | Black Women's Leadership Skills and Practices Portia Newman   | 165 |
| 14 | Mastering the Art of Fixing the Ethical Dilemma: Women Leading Schools in India N. Mythili  | 175 |
| 15 | Promoting a Gender-Sensitive Learning Environment among Primary and Secondary School Leaders in Zimbabwe Irene Muzvidziwa   | 190 |
| 16 | Women's Way of Leading: Inappropriate Essentialism or Critical Question? Jacky Lumby  | 202 |
|    | Part IV: Gender, Career and Leadership Development Pontso Moorosi   | 213 |
| 17 | Gender and Career: Constraints and Facilitators for Women in Accessing Educational Leadership in the UK Marianne Coleman  | 219 |
| 18 | National and District Support for Women Aspiring to Careers in School Leadership in Ethiopia Turuward Zalalam Warkineh, Tizita Lemma Melka and Jill Sperandio               | 230 |
| 19 | Leading Post-primary Education for STEM Careers: The Gendered Perspectives in an Irish Context Mary Cunneen   | 243 |
| 20 | Women in Educational Leadership in Afghanistan, Costa Rica and Rwanda: Reifying Sociocultural Capital Elizabeth C. Reilly   | 257 |
| 21 | Women of Colour Creating Careers as Superintendents of US School Districts Angel Miles Nash and Margaret Grogan   | 272 |
|    | Part V: Emotional Well-Being of Educational Leaders Izhar Oplatka   | 287 |
| 22 | The Missing Statistic in Initial Teacher Education: Experiences and Support Needs of Student Teachers Who Are Mothers Joan Woodhouse and Laura Guihen                       | 291 |
| 23 | An Insight into the Professional Journey of Pakistani Women Academics Afifa Khanam, Asma Kazi, Fakhra Aziz, Saira Taj, Aishah Siddiqah, Victoria Showunmi and Uzma Quraishi | 305 |
| 24 | Women's Educational Leadership and the (Not So) Hidden Toll of Emotional Labour: The Vomit in My Handbag Rachel McNae   | 319 |

|    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 25 | Black Academic Invisibility: Intersectionality, Resiliency and the Complexity of Being Seen Mary F. Howard-Hamilton, Kandace G. Hinton and Kelsey Bogard | 333 |
|    | Notes   | 343 |
|    | References  | 346 |
|    | Index   | 396 |