

CONTENTS

Figures	page vii
Contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xiv
Introduction: Anti-Constitutional Populism Martin Krygier	1
I POPULISMS
1 Populist Constitutionalism – Between Democracy and Authoritarianism Bojan Bugarič	27
2 Anti-elitism and the Constitution – Some Reflections on Populist Constitutionalism Lucia Corso	67
3 Constitutional Populism in South Africa Theunis Roux	99
4 Subaltern Populism – Duterteismo and the War on Constitutional Democracy Richard Javad Heydarian	138
II COURTS
5 Populism, Constitutional Democracy, and High Courts – Lessons from the Venezuelan Case Raul A Sánchez Urribarrí	185
6 When Bolsonaro and the Judges Go Shopping – How Brazil’s Legal Elites Opened the Door for Bolsonaro’s Bad Populism Alexandre Fleck Soares Brandao	220

TABLE OF CONTENTS

7	Disarming the Guardians – the Transformation of the Hungarian Constitutional Court After 2010 Eszter Bodnár	254
III ANTI-CONSTITUTIONALISM AFTER POST-COMMUNISM
8	Conservative Populism in Defiance of Anti-Totalitarian Constitutional Democracy Paul Blokker	297
9	Constitutional Populism and the Rule of Law in Poland Michał Stambulski	336
10	Populism or Authoritarianism? A Plaidoyer against Illiberal or Authoritarian Constitutionalism Gábor Halmai	366
IV EU RESPONSES
11	Populism and the Crisis of Constitutional Pluralism Julian Scholtes	401
12	Populist Constitutional Grammar - Between Manipulative Borrowing and Bad (Judicial) Masters Oreste Pollicino	434
13	Constitutional Populism versus EU Law: A Much More Complex Story than You Imagined Dimitry Vladimirovich Kochenov and Barbara Grabowska-Moroz	462
V CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS
14	Sources of Constitutional Populism – Democracy, Identity, and Economic Exclusion Adam Czarnota	495
15	Institutional Populism, Courts, and the European Union Wojciech Sadurski	506
	Index	543