

Contents

Preface	9
1 Population structures	11
Space and time – Communities – The family – Population structures – Population trends – Epidemics – Famine – War
2 Prices and change	45
Demographic movement – Emigration abroad – The cost of living – Causes of the price-rise – Incomes and the price-rise – Land and the price revolution – Governments and the price revolution
3 Economic structures	67
Money and capitalism – Trade and capitalism – Industrial organization and proto-industry – Refugees and the diffusion of capitalist technique – Capitalism and economic growth
4 Nobles and gentlemen	93
War and violence – The nobility in business – Aristocratic wealth and changing fortunes – Political crisis of the aristocracy in western Europe
5 The bourgeoisie	120
The bourgeoisie in trade – The bourgeois as rentier and financier – The function of office – The rise of the bourgeoisie – Betrayal by the bourgeoisie?
6 The peasantry	146
The agrarian economy – Peasant obligations – Seigneurs and serfs in eastern Europe

8	Contents
7	The marginal population	167
	Vagrancy – The dangerous classes – Poor relief – Slavery – Emigrants and refugees
8	Culture and communication	194
	The kingdom of darkness: witchcraft – Religious scepticism – Literacy and the people – The development of propaganda – The European universities – The discovery and loss of Utopia
9	Economic and political crisis	234
	The English Revolution of 1640 – The Fronde – The Spanish peninsula – Conflict in northern Europe – Revolution in eastern Europe – Politics and the crisis
10	Popular rebellions	258
	Revolts in the early sixteenth century – Rebellions of the late sixteenth century – Banditry and social revolt – Revolts of the early seventeenth century – 1648: the year of revolutions – Revolts of the later seventeenth century – The structure of popular revolt
11	Absolutism and the state	292
	State intervention: land and mercantilism – Social structure and absolutism
	Select bibliography	306
	Index	325