

Table of Contents

List of Figures .....	10
List of Tables .....	11
Introduction .....	13

I

Exit from the Crisis: Reforms and Growth

1	What Can the EMU's Peripheral Countries Learn from Regional Growth? .....	24
1.1	Introduction .....	24
1.2	European Convergence Experience 1991–2009 .....	25
1.3	Predictors of Successful Development of Lagging Regions .....	35
1.3.1	Predictors for Convergence from Below .....	37
1.3.2	Predictors for Upward Mobility .....	39
1.3.3	Predictors for Growth Take-offs .....	40
1.4	Conclusions and Discussion .....	42
1.5	References .....	45
2	Eurozone: Crisis, Stabilization, Solution? .....	47
2.1	Introduction .....	47
2.2	How Did We Get Here .....	48
2.2.1	Agreements and Institutions .....	48
2.2.2	Economy .....	50
2.2.3	Economic Dynamics .....	52
2.2.4	The Onset of the Crisis .....	55
2.2.5	Where from Here? .....	58
2.3	Conclusions .....	66
2.4	References .....	69
3	Neo-Liberal Corset-Policy and European Inflation-Phobia .....	71
3.1	Introduction .....	71
3.2	The Neo-Liberal "Union" – A Diverging "Union" .....	72
3.2.1	Is Europe Growing Faster? .....	72
3.2.2	Is Europe Growing Equal? .....	74
3.3	The Neo-Liberal Maturity .....	77
3.3.1	European Inflation-phobia .....	78
3.3.2	Corset-policy: Transforming a Keynesian Co-operation into a Neo-Liberal Union .....	79

3.4	Conclusions and Proposals .....	81
3.5	References .....	84
4	How to Reform the Eurozone? .....	86
4.1	Introduction .....	86
4.2	Reform Proposals for the Eurozone: An Overview .....	87
4.3	The Case for Exit Rules: An Alternative Solution to Reform the Eurozone .....	92
4.4	Conclusions .....	96
4.5	References .....	97

II

Dilemmas of Eurozone Reforms

5	National Debt Brakes as a Remedy for Diverging Economies in the European Monetary Union? .....	100
5.1	Introduction .....	100
5.2	The Debt Brake and External Imbalances from a Theoretical Perspective .....	102
5.3	Impact of Debt Brakes on External Balances .....	105
5.4	Fiscal Policy and Net Exports – Empirical Results .....	108
5.5	Ex-post Simulations of Debt-brake-coherent Budget Balances .....	112
5.6	Conclusions .....	117
5.7	Appendix .....	119
5.8	References .....	121
6	Is a Fiscal Union the Solution to the Eurozone Debt Crisis? ...	123
6.1	Introduction .....	123
6.2	Imbalances in the Eurozone .....	124
6.2.1	Divergent Competitiveness and Current Account Imbalances .....	124
6.2.2	Negative Externalities .....	131
6.2.3	Coordination Failures .....	132
6.3	Would a Fiscal Union Solve the Problems? .....	135
6.4	Conclusions .....	139
6.5	References .....	141
7	No Exit, No Bail-out, No Default ... So What? .....	142
7.1	Introduction .....	142
7.2	The Original Design .....	143
7.2.1	No Exit .....	143

7.2.2	No Bail-out	145
7.2.3	No Default	149
7.3	So What?	153
7.4	What About a Fiscal Union?	157
7.5	Conclusions	162
7.6	References	162

III

Eurozone Beyond Economics

8	Multiannual Framework Negotiations and the Missed Opportunity of the Eurozone Crisis	166
8.1	Introduction	166
8.2	Financial Framework Negotiations	167
8.3	European Commission and European Parliament Towards the MFF 2014–2020	173
8.4	Final Outlook of the MFF Proposal and What Next?	175
8.5	Our Proposal for EU Budget Reform – Financial Perspective 2014–2020	179
8.6	Conclusions	183
8.7	References	185
9	Euro Crisis: Economic Efficiency Versus Morals	189
9.1	Introduction	189
9.2	The Cost of Euro Break-up for Creditors	190
9.3	The Moral Dilemma of Creditors	196
9.4	Conclusions	199
9.5	References	200
10	Fiscal Compact: Run Away from Lawyers?	201
10.1	Introduction	201
10.2	EU's Reaction in a Nutshell: Legal and Institutional Improvisation	202
10.3	Legal Controversies of the EU Action(s)	205
10.4	Conclusions	209
10.5	References	211

IV

Epilogue

Epilogue	214
----------	-----